Course Description: (catalog) Management theory and fiscal discipline relevant to healthcare delivery as it relates to physical therapy are presented. Alternate means and sources of healthcare delivery are assessed, as well as administrative factors that impact care giving. Concepts and strategies applicable to the marketing and management of physical therapy practice are discussed. The principles and ethics underlying effective conflict resolution are emphasized.

Student description: In this class you will learn the basic concepts from business to help you open and run your own clinic, marketing strategies, how to create a budget, and participate in the day-to-day administrative activities in your future workplace. You will also learn to accurately bill Medicare and private insurances. Finally, you will practice using ethical principles in various simulated situations.

Course Prerequisites for DPT Students: The UTEP DPT Program curriculum is a lock-step curriculum. Therefore, students must pass all courses in the prior semester of the DPT Program in order to enroll in courses in the subsequent semester. Faculty may consider exceptions for PT 6116 PT Capstone Project I and PT 6117 PT Capstone Project II.

University Policies: All students are responsible for following UTEP policies and procedures found in the Handbook of Operating Procedures at www.utep.edu/vpba/hoop

Updated January 25, 2022
Program Policies: All DPT students are responsible for following all policies and procedures documented in the current DPT Student Handbook. Course policies found in the DPT Student Handbook apply to all courses in the DPT curriculum. The current DPT Student Handbook may be found on the DPT Student Resources site on Blackboard.

Academic Integrity: The UTEP DPT Program has a “zero tolerance policy” for scholastic dishonesty. DPT students must demonstrate academic integrity at all times. The current DPT Student Handbook outlines specific definitions, expectations, details, and consequences related to academic integrity and scholastic dishonesty. Additional information related to academic integrity is available through the UTEP Division of Student Affairs at www.utep.edu/student-affairs/osccr/student-conduct/academicintegrity.html

For any referrals to OSCRR the instructor can request penalties up to and including failure of the course. Please ensure that all work submit is your own and that you are not sharing or accepting any previous/future assignments with others without the express permission of the course instructor.

Course-Specific Policies:

1. Attendance Policy - Absences: Refer to current DPT Student Handbook “Attendance and Classroom Behavior” for the DPT Program policy. Additional course-specific policy are as follows:
   • Students are expected to attend all classes.
   • If you are feeling ill or need to isolate due to COVID exposure, please contact Dr. Manning prior to class.

2. Attendance Policy - Tardiness & Early Departures: Refer to current DPT Student Handbook “Attendance and Classroom Behavior” for DPT Program policy. Additional course-specific policy is as follows:
   • If you anticipate needing to come to class late please notify Dr. Manning by email at rajeske@utep.edu.
   • Treat this as a job and follow the same attendance practices that you would at work.

3. Electronic Devices: Refer to current DPT Student Handbook “Electronic Devices” for DPT Program policy. Additional course-specific policy is as follows:
   • Some classroom activities will be completed without electronics due to the nature of the assignment in an effort to enhance participation and communication. Students are expected to follow these instructions.

4. Professional Behavior Policy: See DPT Student Handbook “Attendance and Classroom Behavior”, “Professional Behaviors” and “Unprofessional Behavior:” for general program policy. Additional course-specific is as follows:
   • When guest lecturers or mock patients are present you are expected to present yourself in a professional manner. This means business casual or scrubs.
   • It is expected that students will come to class prepared to discuss material from readings and posted lectures. Class time will be spent primarily on active learning activities. As such students are expected to be prepared. If they are not, the will be asked to leave the class and must make an appointment with instructor to present their plan to be prepared for classes in the future.

5. Late or Missed Assignments and Assessments Policy: See current DPT Student Handbook “Written Examination Policy”. Additional course-specific policy is as follows:
   - Late assignments will result in a 10% deduction per day on the assignment. If the assignment is more than 3 days late, a 0 (zero) will be assigned.

6. Skills Check Policy:
   - Not applicable

7. Practical Exam Policy:
   - Not applicable
