Class Materials

The instructor may provide class materials that will be made available to all students registered for this class as they are intended to supplement the classroom experience. These materials may be downloaded during the course, however, these materials are for registered students' use only. Classroom materials may not be reproduced or shared with those not in class, or uploaded to other online environments except to implement an approved Office of Student AccessAbility accommodation. Failure to comply with these University requirements is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

Course Pre-requisites, Co-requisites, and/or Other Restrictions

Upper-division standing. Restricted to students in the UT in DC Archer Fellowship Program. Taught in Washington, D.C.

Course Overview

This course will give you a brief introduction to the federal policymaking process from the perspective of the legislative branch of government in the United States. Students will work closely with the class lecturers, each of whom is an experienced policy expert, to identify stakeholders in the federal policy process and understand the various entry points for these stakeholders to influence the policy outcomes. The class will operate as a policy simulation in which students role play members of Congress and learn how to craft legislative policy through participating in simulated congressional hearing and bill mark-up in a congressional committee.

Student Learning Objectives/Outcomes

Upon completing the class, students will be able to:

1. Explain the influence of politics on the policy and procedures of the legislative branch of government.
3. Conduct in-depth research on a policy issue and then compile a cohesive policy analysis and proposal for revising an existing statute.
4. Write policy memos.

Required Textbooks and Materials

Required Texts

All course materials are provided or available for free over the Internet. Links to the materials are provided, or copies will be posted to eLearning and Teams.

We're Better Than This: My Fight For the Future of Democracy, by Elijah Cummings and James Dale (2021: Harper Collins).

Required Materials

Access to a computer and reliable internet service.

Assignments & Academic Calendar

Course Details

Each class meets weekly for 3 hours, with a short break between sections, and will follow this format (unless otherwise noted):

6:30-7:30 pm ET Part I of class: Lecture with Dr. Chin-Miller

7:30-9:30 pm ET Part II of class: Workshop Groups directed by the lecturers

Except where noted, classes will meet at the Archer Center. Additional meetings may be scheduled on Teams.

Course Policies

Late Work: No late work accepted without prior discussion with Dr. Chin-Miller or your lecturer.

Class Attendance

Tardies & Absences – Students are expected to be in class by the posted start time (for most classes, this is 6:30 p.m. EST). Students who find themselves unable to attend class (or the discussion sessions) or who may be delayed due to personal or professional circumstances beyond their control should inform Dr. Chin-Miller as soon as possible (preferably prior to class).

Classroom Citizenship

- Decorum and professionalism are expected in the classroom and online at all times. Respect for the professor, classmates and their opinions, guest speakers and their opinions, and Archer Center staff are also required. The professor reserves the right to deduct points from class participation should any improprieties occur throughout the course of the semester.
- Masks are encouraged, but not required, to be worn while inside the Archer Center.
- During any sessions with guest speakers, students are expected to pay attention to the speaker. For students participating in person, this means they should turn put down mobile devices and laptops. During virtual sessions, students should remain “on camera.”
 - WHY? When we're not giving our full attention to our guests, we can leave them with the (incorrect?) impression that we don't care about what they are saying. We look distracted. We look disengaged. We look disconnected.

Grading Policy

Students are expected to come to class prepared to discuss the assigned reading material and to interact knowledgeably with guest lecturers.

Final grades will be determined based on the following:

5% Fastwork (graded by Dr. Chin-Miller)

- Team reading of Declaration of Independence (5%)

35% Community Service, Attendance, Difficult Dialogues (graded by Dr. Chin-Miller)

- Community Service Project (10%)
- Class Attendance (15%)
- Difficult Dialogue (10%)

60% Policy Simulation Assignments & Participation (graded by Lecturers)

- Background & Analysis Memo (10%)
- Hearing Participation & Staff Memo (25%)
- Mark-up Participation & Memo with legislative language (25%)

Details

5% Fastwork - Team reading of Declaration of Independence

- Work in teams of 4 people to read ALOUD the full and complete text of the Declaration of Independence. Give your team a name. Find a public space in DC to film your team reading. Each member should read a portion of the Declaration. In your video, make sure to post your team name, and list the names of each Team member. Each team must select a location for their reading that does not duplicate the site of another team's reading.
- Deadline: Post completed videos to the Fall 2023 Facebook group by 11:59 p.m. 9/9/23.

40% Community Service, Attendance, Difficult Dialogues

- (15%) Community Service Project – You will work with your lecturer and individual group (congressional committee) to design and implement a service project to address a need in the metropolitan Washington, D.C. area. The stakeholders who will benefit from this project should be a group whose interests are relevant to the committee that is represented by the workshop group. The projects must be completed by November 24, 2023. In class on December 4, 2023, the committee chairs and ranking members (or their designees) will present a brief report about their group's project in the first hour of class. The committee leadership may delegate responsibility for leadership of the community service project to other members of the committee.
 - By 11:59 pm ET September 23, 2023, the committee chairs and ranking members should submit a written plan describing the project. Your plan should include a timeline for completion of the task(s), and an outline of the persons who are responsible for these tasks. You should also include an itemized budget spreadsheet for the project. If you need to order any items, please include in the spreadsheet a list of the items, the source for the items, and the person responsible for receiving delivery of the items. Each group must e-mail their draft budget and project timeline by 11:59 pm ET on 9/23/23 to your lecturer and Dr. Chin-Miller and also submit the documents to https://utdallas.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_6EvRAGId7slk24S.
 - Work with your lecturer and classmates to decide what your group wants to do. You are free to decide how many projects your committee/workshop group will complete by November 24, 2023. For example, the project could be one that involves all members of your committee; or a joint collaboration with another committee; or several smaller group projects within each committee/workshop group.
 - Generous donors to the Archer Center have provided funding for this project. Each committee/workshop group will have up to $500 to cover expenses associated with the project. The project must require personal engagement of each member of the committee/workshop group. It cannot simply be a directive to send money to an organization. Your goal should be to achieve maximum impact with minimal cost.

- (15%) Class Attendance – Attend weekly class and workshop group sessions. You must participate in-person as scheduled. There are 15 class periods in the semester; each class period is worth 1% of your total grade. Unexcused absences will result in a reduction in your final grade.
- (10%) Difficult Dialogues – Each student must find another student with whom they share significant differences in opinions/ideology/personality/ philosophy. They must work together to identify ways to communicate effectively, build a collaborative relationship, and find some common agreement. Each student must write 2 Difficult Dialogues. These can be with two different people, or with the same person at different points in time. Your Difficult Dialogue partner must NOT be one of the people who share an apartment with you.
 - Objectives
 - Develop skills for listening to people who disagree (or are disagreeable), and understanding their perspective.
 - Identify areas of common agreement/beliefs.
 - Assessment: Clear prose, analysis, engagement with subject. Demonstrate that you have reached an understanding of how the other person interprets information, understands/perceives conversations/ideas.
 - Task
 - Identify another Archer Fellow in the current cohort with whom you have some fundamental point/issue of disagreement. Your Dialogue partner should be a person who is unlike you—it could be someone you don't know well, or someone whose personality, political or policy views are generally opposite to yours, or someone you don't like or with whom you don't naturally "click". [Do not select your BFF and start an argument. Do not select a Dialogue partner who is already committed to dialoguing with another Fellow.]
 - Over the next few weeks, make an effort to connect with this person and work to identify areas of common understanding or experience. Also work to identify, articulate and practice/implement the tools/skills/tactics/strategies that will best enable you and your "adversary" to reach an agreement or mutually satisfactory decision about an action.
 - In an individually-written essay, describe the areas of differences/conflict and the areas of agreement/understanding that you have identified in each other. Then explain how you reached a conclusion about the tools/skills/tactics/strategies that will enable you to effectively communicate your ideas to each other, as well as make decisions in a collaborative manner.
 - Each party in the pairing must submit an individually-written essay. Email the essay to Dr. Chin-Miller by 11:59 pm on the posted due dates.
 - Please proofread your essays for grammar and punctuation. Points deducted for sloppy work. Dr. Chin-Miller will grade these assignments.
 - Deadlines
 1. (5%) First Difficult Dialogue: Due 9/15/23
 2. (5%) Second Difficult Dialogue: Due 11/29/23

60% Policy Simulation Participation & Assignments

- (10%) Background Memo (1-2 pages) in which you summarize the legislative history of the law and analyze areas for improvement/revision. Discuss drafts with your lecturer during class. FINAL DUE: email to your lecturer (and copy Dr. Chin-Miller) by 11:59 pm ET 10/6/23.
- (25%) Hearing Participation & Staff Memo (Staff Memo to Member Persona) – (1-2 pages) In this paper, you summarize the issues to be covered at the hearing and provide a list of questions for the witnesses. FINAL DUE: email to your lecturer (and copy Dr. Chin-Miller) by 11:59 pm ET 10/31/23.

- (25%) Mark up Participation & Memo that includes your amendments. (Staff Memo to Member Persona) - (1 page memo, plus additional pages for amendments). A discussion draft of your amendments is due by 6:30 pm, ET Monday, November 13, 2023; this will be essential to prepare for your committee mark-up simulation. FINAL DUE: email to your lecturer (and copy Dr. Chin-Miller) by 11:59 pm, ET Tuesday, November 21, 2023.

Late assignments will be penalized! Nevertheless, lecturers also have discretion to offer options for revising and resubmitting assignments up to the posted deadlines.

Note: Dr. Chin-Miller is the instructor of record for this course. The lecturers are responsible for grading all Policy Simulation participation and assignments. The lecturers will report these grades to Dr. Chin-Miller, who is responsible for taking class attendance, and grading the fastwork, community service projects and Difficult Dialogues, and compiling the final grades and review of each student enrolled in the course.

Grading Scale

A+ (98-100)	A (94-97)	A- (90-93)	B+ (88-89)	B (84-87)	B- (80-83)
C+ (78-79)	C (77-70)	D (60-69)	F (59 or lower)

Midterm grades will be posted by October 14, 2023. Final grades will be reported to your home UT System institution by December 11, 2023 and posted in accordance with their respective grade submission deadlines.

Note: UT System campuses vary in their use of the +/- grading scale. Grades for students enrolled at campuses that do not follow this system will be reported as follows: A (90-100), B (80-89), C (70-79), D (60-69), F (59 or lower).

Comet Creed

This creed was voted on by the UT Dallas student body in 2014. It is a standard that Comets choose to live by and encourage others to do the same: "As a Comet, I pledge honesty, integrity, and service in all that I do."

UT Dallas Syllabus Policies and Procedures

The information contained in the following link constitutes the University's policies and procedures segment of the course syllabus. Please go to <http://go.utdallas.edu/syllabus-policies> for these policies.

The descriptions and timelines contained in this syllabus are subject to change at the discretion of the Professor.

Workshop Group Assignments

As an Archer Fellow, you have been assigned to one of four groups named for neighborhoods in Washington, DC: Anacostia, Brookland, Capital, Dupont.

The Policymaking Process class is divided into four Workshop Group sections that correspond to the four cohort groups. Each workshop group is assigned to one of the lecturers. Over the course of the semester, your lecturer will coach you on the legislative and policymaking process and also help you prepare for the policy simulation. Each Workshop Group represents a specific congressional committee.

In your Workshop Group, you will study specific bills that have been passed into law. You will use these bills to learn about the policy process. Specifically, you will understand (1) how policy change occurs over time, (2) how legislative history is constructed, and (3) how policy outcomes are shaped by political realities. As part of the course, you will participate in a policy simulation where you develop policy solutions within your assigned committees.

Each individual student will be assigned to play the role of a member of Congress (i.e. their “Member Persona”). Some students will be assigned to the House and others to the Senate. Each student will also be assigned to one congressional committee. During the weekly Workshop Group sessions, the lecturers will work with students to explain the various facets of the committee’s legislative process and will also coach the students as they develop their policy proposals. Each student must research the background of their Member Persona in order to role-play that member in the end-of-course policy simulation. During the Workshop Group sessions, each student must be prepared to explain their Member Persona’s reaction to the policy proposals that are being developed.

LECTURER	Committee	Law

Read about the Texas Legation in DC:*

<http://republicoftexaslegationmemorial.org/kitty-mellen-hoeck/>

“We the People and Forming a More Perfect Union” – class activity at Navy Memorial

Consider: How does the federal policy process reflect the ideals established in the Declaration, Constitution and Bill of Rights? What tools are provided by the Declaration and Constitution for forming a “more perfect union”? To what extent does the Constitution establish a government that is accessible to the public? Is the gridlock and conflict that are observed in Congress and the federal policy process a natural byproduct of such an open system?

10:30 am – Noon ET

Visit the National Archives. Inside, view the Declaration of Independence, Constitution, Bill of Rights and Emancipation Proclamation

Task: Explore the Archives to find answers to the following questions. How long are the time lapses between constitutional action that changes the constitutional definition of “we the people”? How would you describe the process for advocates to prevail in changing policy? Identify other materials that you can find at the Archives that help tell the story of the United States and progress towards achieving the ideals of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution?

Workshop Group Exercises

1. Know Your Member

- Use workshop group time to compile the Member profile
- What are the member's committee assignments, biographical and demographic details, election history, policy priorities, constituency characteristics?
- If you wished to defeat this member of Congress in the next election, what are some important factors to consider—e.g. the incumbent's strengths and vulnerabilities?
Proofread carefully to ensure the document is grammatically correct and clearly written.
- Describe and analyze the ways that your own views either align with or differ from your MOC persona. This exercise will help you better understand the MOC and should not be seen as your personal endorsement of their values/ideology.
- Deliverable: Each student should prepare a worksheet that provides this information for their member persona. This worksheet will NOT be graded, but is critical for role-playing the member persona.
- Each Week: Be prepared to provide a brief update on the activities/actions that your member persona has engaged in since the last class. Your lecturer will ask questions about the members.

2. Committee Rules & Procedures

- What does a new member need to know and understand about their committee assignment, and the committee rules, norms and practices?
- Select your committee chair and ranking member.

3. Community Service Project

- Discuss ideas for the community service project that your committee/workshop group will conduct during the semester.

7:30-8:30 pm Discuss the principles of research & writing policy

- Principles of Research & Writing Policy
 - Developing policy ideas/proposals
 - Writing persuasive/effective memos (Committee briefing memos, staff briefing memos)
 - Research and due diligence
 - Researching Your Member Persona & Federal Policy Actions
 - Discuss drafts of the team memos
- Impact of partisanship on policy
 - Do “compromise” and “bipartisanship” contribute to “good” public policy outcomes?
 - What are tactics and strategies for working with party leadership (whether Democratic or Republican) and other colleagues (partisan v. bipartisan collaboration)?
 - What are lessons that policy leaders/stakeholders learn from (un)successful efforts to make policy
- Engaging in Difficult Dialogues with Policymakers
 - What lessons have the lecturers learned about productive dialogues with policy stakeholders and other policymakers?
 - What are three tips for understanding the concerns of stakeholders who oppose your ideas?
 - What are three tips for building productive relationships with policymakers and staff?

7:30-9:30 pm ET – WORKSHOP GROUP

- How can you use the budget and appropriations process to achieve your policy goals?
- Examine the level of funding (annual appropriations) allocated to programs that your committee has authorized.
- Discuss the strategies employed in building support with congressional appropriators for your committee’s priorities.

ASSIGNMENT due: Submit your plan and budget for the community service project by 11:59 pm, 9/23/23. Email details to your lecturer and Dr. Chin-Miller.

Class 8: TUES, Sept. 26, 2023

Congress & The White House: We’re Better Than This

6:30-9:30 pm ET (5:30-8:30 pm CT)

Archer Center

Required reading

- We’re Better Than This: My Fight For the Future of Democracy, by Elijah Cummings and James Dale

6:30-7:30 pm – Book talk with Guest Speaker: Dr. Maya Rockey Moore Cummings, founder & CEO of Global Policy Solutions.

7:45-9:15 pm – WORKSHOP GROUP

- Discuss the relationship between Congress, your committee, its leadership and the White House. How do the President and their advisors influence: (1) your party leadership in Congress, (2) your committee’s policy agenda and priorities, (3) your own member persona? What are electoral concerns that your member persona and your committee must take into consideration when you’re making policy decisions? How do these political realities impact or shape your decisions about strategy and policy outcomes?
- Use the Workshop Group time to begin preparing your background memo.

ASSIGNMENT due: Background Memo due by 11:59 pm on 10/6/23

Class 9: Mon, Oct. 2, 2023
Oversight & Accountability

6:30-9:30 pm ET

7:30-9:30 pm ET – WORKSHOP GROUP

- With your lecturer, watch a recording of an oversight hearing held by your committee. Stop/pause the recording to discuss the action, and to ask questions to gain a better understanding of what happens at a committee hearing.
- Some questions for consideration:
 - What does your committee do to ensure accountability and "good government" from the agencies that are in the committee's jurisdiction?
 - What oversight actions would your member persona and/or your committee be likely to pursue?
 - Are there any current or pending agency rules that pertain to your policy? What action would you and/or your committee want to take to support or oppose the rulemaking?
 - How would an oversight hearing help your committee improve the legislation you are drafting?
- Discuss any final questions about the Background Memo due at 10/6/23 at 11:59 pm.

ASSIGNMENT due: Background Memo due by 11:59 pm on 10/6/23
