Sex Matters: The Sexuality & Society Reader 5th ed., by Mindy Stombler, et al.

W.W. Norton Publishers 2019 ISBN: 9780393623581

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will examine sexuality in its social and cultural contexts, focusing on how society influences or shapes the many variations in sexual identity and sexual behavior. Qualitative approaches will be discussed and applied to sexuality research and to cultural and social influences on sex and sexuality. Our approach is strictly academic, not therapeutic. Topics of interest to be covered are categorizing sex, investigating sexuality, sexual education, heteronormativity, sexual bodies, practices and diseases, bisexuality, sexual violence, and social control of sexuality.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve excellence based on the quality of work produced by the individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity.

Any form of academic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that the members of this academic community understand the regulations pertaining to academic integrity and that all faculty members insist on adherence to these standards.

Any student who commits an act of academic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, and any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP), and available in the Office of the Dean of Students and on the homepage of the Dean of Students at www.utep.edu/dos, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to a failing grade on the work in question, to a failing grade in the course, to suspension or dismissal, among others.
