Course Description:

The purpose of this course is to examine topics related to women's health in the U.S. and internationally, specifically the programs, services, and policies that affect women's health. The course content will emphasize the social, economic, environmental, behavioral, and political factors associated with women's health. This course will focus on the impact of various health issues throughout a woman's life cycle, paying attention to the existence of health disparities among certain groups of women.

Course Objectives: By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify the major physical, mental, social, and political issues affecting women's health today
- Describe the implications of federal and state policies on women's health
- Examine women's health issues using an intersectional lens, paying attention to the different health needs of sexual/gender and racial/ethnic minority groups
- Explain health disparities and differences that exist among women based on race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, disability, etc.
- Identify the leading causes of death for women in various phases of the life cycle
- Critically analyze current medical models of women's health and compare them to models used in other countries
- Describe how stress, violence, and harassment negatively impact women's health across the lifespan

Required Readings:

Book: New Dimensions in Women's Health (Seventh Edition) by Linda Lewis Alexander, Judith LaRosa, Helaine Bader, Susan Garfield, William James Alexander (2016).

Book: Our Bodies, Ourselves by the Boston Women's Health Book Collective (2011).

Both books are available via the UTEP bookstore <https://www.bkstr.com/texaselpasostore/home/en> and via www.amazon.com

Additional reading assignments and review of videos will be required throughout the course and will be made available to students via Blackboard.

Grading and Performance Evaluation:

Grade Distribution – Students can potentially earn 1,000 points in this fall online course based on successful completion of the following assignments:

- 450 points: 9 discussion board posts and responses (50 pts/Discussion)
- 200 Points: 4 Quizzes (50 pts each)
- 100 Points: 4 Essays/Video Analyses (25 pts each)
- 250 Points: Community Project & Paper (broken down into 4 components)

Grading Scale:

1,000 - 900 points	A
899 – 800 points	B
799 – 700 points	C
699 – 600 points	D
599 points or below	F

Assignments to be submitted via Blackboard:

1. Discussion Board: Discussion boards allow you to interact with your classmates as you would in a face to face course. They are essential for critical thinking analysis and connecting the ideas from the text with the wider world in this online course. You are expected to participate in the 9 Discussion Questions at the discussion board on week 1,2, 3, 5, 6, 9, 10, 13 & 15 as follows:
  - A. You must have one initial post of 300-400 words that makes an original statement and follows all discussion prompt guidelines for that week. You must cite two of the readings (or any other media or outside source) each week to receive full credit. You must use both in text citations and include your references at the bottom of the post.
  - B. In addition, you must respond to two different classmates' initial postings with a 150-200 minimum word response per post.
  - C. Your initial post must be posted each Wednesday by midnight Mountain Time.
  - D. Your follow up posts to two peers are due each Friday by midnight, (MT).
  - E. Late initial posts and/or follow up posts will not be accepted and will not receive credit.
  - F. You should respond to direct questions or issues raised by others in response to your initial post, including those raised by your professor.

2. Quizzes: Pertain to Modules 1-4 and will each be worth 50 points. Quizzes will consist of multiple choice, true/false questions, and will be based on the readings, videos, and discussion posts assigned for that module. Quizzes are open book and students are expected to work independently. No “group” quiz taking is permitted, as this constitutes plagiarism. Quizzes will be posted on Wednesdays are to be completed each Sunday by midnight (Mountain Time).

3. Essays: Students will submit a total of 4 short reflective essays based on videos presented during each module. Response essays must be a minimum of 2 pages (double spaced). Detailed instructions will be posted on the link for the corresponding week on Blackboard. Essays will be due Saturdays by midnight (Mountain Time).

4. Community Research Project: Students will closely examine one area of women's health by going into the community to see what services are available. This assignment will be broken down in four sections, each due on Sundays: identifying the area you want to study and why (one paragraph); short review of your research on your chosen topic (one page); short summary of your observations of the site and interviews with a local agency/provider (one page); and final summary of findings (5 pages, APA format with citations, double spaced). I will ask you to turn in specific components of the project on given dates, with the final paper due Sunday, November 28th by midnight.

Policies and Expectations:

Late Work: No late work will be accepted during the semester. If you have a question about this policy please contact me as soon as possible to discuss your concern.

Work Load: This is an online course. I expect that you will commit at least 6-9 hours per week on the course assignments. As you prepare for the semester, please schedule your time accordingly so that you can be successful in this course.

Drop Policy: The instructor reserves the right to drop a student for lack of participation and/or lack of work submitted. If at any time a student decides to drop the course, it is the student's responsibility to do so. The deadline for dropping this course is October 29, 2021. If you drop before the UTEP deadline, you will receive a "W". If you drop yourself or are dropped by the instructor after the deadline, you will receive an "F".

Class participation: Since our contact for this course is primarily online, I strongly recommend that you check the course page on Blackboard daily. Email messages are sent to your UTEP email address, so make sure you check your UTEP email several times a week. I will be sending at least two announcements weekly, and these will come to your email address. The class has been structured with individual tasks due on separate days, to allow you time to focus on one task at a time. Thus, initial discussion posts will be due Wednesdays, discussion post responses will be due on Fridays, essays are due Saturdays, and quizzes and the community research project components are due on Sundays, all by midnight (Mountain Time).

Software Requirements:

This course is completely online and interacts continually with UTEP's Blackboard system. You will need the following software to effectively work in this course. In some cases, your computer may already have some of these programs installed:

1. Adobe Acrobat Reader -- to get the program, go to <http://www.adobe.com> and then click on the icon on the center of the screen that says, "Get Adobe Reader". Follow the instructions to install this software.
2. Apple QuickTime Player – go to <http://www.apple.com> and click on the "downloads" tab on the top of the page. Next, click on "QuickTime download" and follow the instructions to install this software.
3. Microsoft Office – I recommend that you install this if you do not currently have it in your computer. As currently enrolled UTEP students, you can install Office 365 and its components for free. You can obtain more information by going to <http://admin.utep.edu/Default.aspx?tabid=74266> or ask for help installing it from the UTEP IT Help Desk located on the 3rd floor in the library (915) 747-4357.

Disabled Student Statement:

In Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, if a student needs an accommodation then the Office of Disabled Student Services located at UTEP need to be contacted. If you have a condition, which may affect your ability to perform successfully in this course, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the director of the Disabled Student Services. You may call 915.747.5148 for general information about the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the rights that you have as a UTEP student with a disability.

Individuals with disabilities have the right to equal access and opportunity. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor and The Disabled Student Services Office at The University of Texas at El Paso. For more information, contact the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/cass/> or you can find them in Room 106 in the East Union Building.

Equity Statement:

All persons, regardless of gender, age, class, race, religion, physical disability, sexual orientation, etc., shall have equal opportunity without harassment in this course. This includes inappropriate comments about the above mentioned on line, in person, or in confidence. Any problems with or questions about harassment can be discussed confidentially with your instructor.

Resources:

Academic Writing

For help with writing any assignments for this course, please visit the University Writing Center in person located in the UTEP library Room 227, or online at <http://academics.utep.edu/Default.aspx?tabid=57766> For further information on the writing centers services and hours please call (915) 747-5486.

Netiquette

In participating in an online course, it is important that you follow the use of proper online etiquette, also known as “netiquette.” At times, this course will present material on emotionally charged topics. Remember that while you can disagree with another’s viewpoint, you must do so respectfully. The online classroom is not the place for insulting comments, attacks, or venting. Inappropriate behavior can be subject to disciplinary action. Here is an article that explores this idea a little more in-depth: <https://www.utep.edu/extendeduniversity/utepconnect/blog/october-2017/10-rules-of-netiquette-for-students.html>

A link to this article will also be available on Blackboard for your week #1 assignments.

Academic Dishonesty:

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another person's as ones' own. And, collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for possible disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from UTEP for such actions.

Academic dishonesty is an assault upon the basic integrity and meaning of a University. Cheating, plagiarism, and collusion in dishonest activities are serious acts which erode the University's educational and research roles and cheapen the learning experience not only for the perpetrators, but also for the entire community. It is expected that UTEP students will understand and subscribe to the ideal of academic integrity and that they will be willing to bear individual responsibility for their work. Materials (written or otherwise) submitted to fulfill academic requirements must represent a student's own efforts.

Conduct and Grievances:

The Student Handbook covers the proper procedure for addressing student complaints and expected conduct. If you have a question, problem, or concern with this class, please discuss it with your instructor so that a resolution can be reached quickly.

Each student is responsible for notice of and compliance with the provisions of the Regents Rules and Regulations, which are available for inspection electronically at <http://www.utsystem.edu/bor/rules.htm>.

This syllabus is a LIVING DOCUMENT. All dates and activities listed may change depending on class discussion and other unforeseen events.

- Readings from the “New Dimension’s in Women’s Health” book are listed in the Syllabus as NDWH.
- Readings from the “Our Bodies Ourselves” book are listed as OBO.
