Course Information

BED 4317 – Teaching and Empowering English Language Learners in Secondary Schools
3 Credit Hours
Location: (Hybrid) Education Building, Rm. 307 and Blackboard online learning platform
Days and Times: (Hybrid) Tuesdays, 1:30-4:20pm and Online, 8 weeks

Course Description:

This course discusses the principles, challenges and issues facing English Language Learners in the social, cultural, academic, and personal contexts of secondary schools. Particular emphasis will be placed on various theoretical and pedagogical approaches to effectively teaching content and academic language.

Prerequisite: Admission to Teacher Education

Course Objectives and Student Learning Outcomes

Student learning outcomes will be evaluated with the assignments described below. At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able:

- To build a strong philosophical foundation to guide pedagogy that reflects and enacts high expectations of ELs/emergent bilinguals, immigrants, refugee, and marginalized student populations
- To develop a strong ethic of caring for ELs/emergent bilinguals, immigrants, refugee, and marginalized student populations
- To go beyond good teaching methods and develop a humanizing and empowering pedagogy for ELs/emergent bilinguals, immigrants, refugee, and marginalized student populations
- To learn the various ideas, concepts, and methods of sheltered instruction and other approaches to teach language and content in the mainstream and ESL classroom
- To learn and understand the various linguistic, sociocultural, academic, and personal complexities involved in the school experiences of ELs/emergent bilinguals, immigrants, refugees, and marginalized student populations

Topics to be Covered

- Who English language learners are and the role of lived experiences on their schooling
- History of Bilingual Education and teaching English learners in the United States
- Philosophies underlying the concepts of Bilingual Education and ESL Instruction
- Legal foundations of Bilingual Education and teaching English language learners

- Politics of Multilingualism
- Sociocultural factors in the education of emergent bilinguals/English learners
- Federal and State Policy
- Bilingual/Dual/ESL Program Models
- First and second language acquisition and research; Role of L1 in L2 learning
- Oral language, reading, and writing by ELLs
- Role of culture in academic achievement
- Models of teaching and working with English language learners and Sheltered Instruction; Comprehensible Input; Translanguaging
- State Assessments for Bilingual/EL students
- Texas Teaching Standards, Domains, and Competencies for Bilingual Education and English as a Second Language

College's Conceptual Theme

This course aligns with the University and College of Education's mission and vision in addressing the preparation of educators/future teachers with a special emphasis and support for student learning and development within linguistically and culturally diverse border region settings. It provides students opportunities to apply bilingual/ELL education knowledge as they develop and/or deliver presentations and teaching activities that are aligned to the State standards.

Required Text(s) and Content

- 1) Wright, W.E. (2019) Foundations for Teaching English Language Learners: Research, Theory, Policy, and Practice. Caslon: Philadelphia. 3rd Edition.

This text can be purchased at the UTEP BOOKSTORE or directly from Brookes Publishing (<https://brookespublishing.com/caslon/>), Amazon, or other textbook sellers.

- 2) Subscription to the Teaching Channel (go to www.teachingchannel.com); This is a course requirement, and is needed in order to complete virtual field observations.

Sources of Information Essential for Educator Preparation

University Policy on Academic Integrity

The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve based on the quality of work produced by their individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of scholastic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that all faculty insist on adherence to these standards.

Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are not attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, and any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts, such as the use of generative artificial intelligence (AI). Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP) and available in the Office of the Dean of Students, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to failing grades on the work in question, to failing grades in the course, to suspension or dismissal among others.

Expectations of You, as a Future Educator

As a future educator, it is expected that you perform and practice your developing craft in the most ethical, respectful, and professional manner. Following these expectations, and the subsequent actions, is often reflected in how you perform in your present coursework and the quality you invest in your own education. As such, all students are expected to be prepared for class, to “be present” in class by focusing on the task at hand and giving your attention to me and others, while not constantly checking your mobile device (face-to-face or online). Part of being a student at UTEP means you should also check your UTEP emails for communication, keep track of your performance in class through Blackboard, and being cognizant of who you want to become as an educator. Reading the assignments is essential to meaningful participation. Students are responsible for working with their groups. All students are required to maintain a high level of professionalism and respect for one another as we engage in discussions and group work.

Classroom Policies

- Be prepared. That means reading your textbook and all assigned readings carefully, closely, and critically. Reading is the beginning of the journey toward understanding. If you do not read, you have no knowledge base. You have no foundation. How can you know something, if you do not even have the beginning of what you need to begin to know? And if you want to get certified as a teacher, you will be tested on this content you read and study in your courses. So, read, read, read!
- Participate. In order to get the most out of this course, and to really get a sense of what you know, understand, and are learning, your participation – which includes questions, debates, discussions, and reflecting (even in your own mind) – is vital. As such, you are expected to participate actively in Blackboard, and contribute to get the most from this learning experience.
- Be responsible. As a future educator, how would you want your students to perform? What types of behaviors would you want them to exhibit? Develop habits and practices as a student that you can be proud of as an educator, and that you would want your students to learn from you. As such, no late work will be accepted. No excuses. No exceptions.
- Quality AND Quantity: Be Proud of Your Work. As prospective educators, you will hold the future and lives of students in your hands. For example, if you are responsible for teaching a student how to read, you better know how to teach a student how to read. As such, work hard. Go above and beyond. Produce high quality work. If you were a parent, would you want the teacher who always turned in work late as a college student, always had excuses about their poor performance, and barely passed their classes, but still graduated? Or would you want your child to have the teacher who was responsible, on-time, organized, had good grades, and did high quality work? As such, all students are expected to be prepared, be responsible, be organized, and to do good work. Do good work well.

- Attendance. Your successful completion to tasks and quality of work submitted is your presence in this course.

Texas State Board of Education (SBEC) Standards Assessed: Bilingual Standards II-III, ESL Standards I, III, IV, V and VI

Bilingual Standards

- The bilingual education teacher has knowledge of the foundations of bilingual education and the concepts of bilingualism and biculturalism
- The bilingual education teacher knows the process of first and second language acquisition and development

ESL Standards

- The ESL teacher understands fundamental language concepts and knows the structure and conventions of the English language
- The ESL teacher understands the processes of first- and second-language acquisition and uses
- The ESL teacher understands ESL teaching methods and uses this knowledge to plan and implement effective, developmentally appropriate ESL curriculum and instruction
- The ESL teacher has knowledge of the factors that affect ESL students’ learning of academic content, language, and culture
- The ESL teacher understands formal and informal assessment procedures and instruments used in ESL programs and uses assessment results to plan and adapt instruction

These standards are addressed through various competencies that future educators (all levels, K-12) are expected to have within particular domains. The following competencies will be addressed and evaluated.

Course Requirements and Points Scale

360 – 324 = A (Excellent)
323 – 288 = B (Good)
287 – 252 = C (Average)
215 and below = F (Fail)

1. Preparation/Attendance/Participation: As a hybrid, 8-week summer course, you are expected to be actively involved in the various assigned activities in-person and on Blackboard to meet the weekly learning objectives. All students are responsible for meeting on the designated in-person meeting times and logging onto class and demonstrating their presence. This will be determined by a) your presence in class, b) indication by Blackboard that you have logged on, and c) your ability to complete assignments and tasks according to deadlines.

(Points procedure on not attending or participating in class)

After one missed class, for every class session that you miss, 10 points will be subtracted from your points total for the course.

(Points procedure on arriving late to class)

After the first time, for every class session that you arrive late to class (within 10 minutes after the start of class) or do not participate in the designated timeframe, 5 points will be subtracted from your points total.

2. Reading Quiz [80 points, 8 quizzes x 10pts. each]: You will take a quiz based on the assigned reading(s) for the week. You may not use your textbook while taking the quiz. *NOTE: Taking the quiz is based on an Honor System, and it may actually be more detrimental to your score if you try to find answers in the textbook, since the quizzes are timed. The quizzes are created to test what you remember from the reading. That is, they will simply see if you've done the assigned reading(s) for the week. They are not created to test your conceptual understanding of the material you read. The conceptual understandings will be developed through further discussion of the readings and contextualizing Key Terms on the Discussion Board. The Reading Quizzes will help build your foundation on the topics presented by reading important content and getting exposed to information. That's where it all begins...reading. You will not be allowed to make up any missed quizzes. No exceptions. *You must take the Reading Quiz by the start of in-person class, Tuesday, 1:30pm, of every week.

3. End-of-Class Quiz [80 points, 8 quizzes x 10pts. each]: This quiz is based on the Guiding Questions you will find at the beginning of each chapter. You will see the Guiding Questions that you will be quizzed on at the week's tasks description on Blackboard. Some quizzes will be 2 questions (5pts. per question), and some may be 5 questions (2pts. each question). To prepare for this quiz, you MUST, at a minimum, be able to answer all aspects of the Guiding Questions. This quiz will open up each Tuesday after class at 4:20pm. You will not be allowed to make up any missed quizzes. No exceptions. *You must take this End-of-Class quiz by Friday, 11:59pm, of every week.

4. Virtual Field Experience Observation Documentation

As part of earning field experience observations hours prior to Student Teaching/Internship, you will be required to view videos of teaching and learning on The Teaching Channel (teachingchannel.com) website and submit documentation that you have completed the daily observation. You will need to subscribe to the Teaching Channel site.

You will view a minimum of 1 hour or so of video each week, for a total of 10 hours of video for the course. Here is what you need to submit for each Observation Documentation:

- a. View any video(s) on the Teaching Channel each designated week, for approximately 1 hour of viewing or so. Just be sure that in the end you have a minimum of 10 hours total to enter in the College of Education observation log. This can be any video or combination of videos, as long as the combined time of viewing adds up to approximately one (1) hour or so per designated week. *NOTE: You are not allowed to watch the same video for these 10 hours. You must watch a different video or group of videos each observation.
- b. Document your video viewing/observations by providing the following information on a Word document and submitting it each day at the link "Observation Documentation":
 - a. Create your documentation on a 1-page Word Document (Double space, 12-point font, Times New Roman)
 - b. For each hour's observation documentation, provide the following information (number each item below accordingly):
 - 1) Title of video(s) viewed
 - 2) Length of time for each video. Add up the time from each video and provide the total time. Remember, the total time must add up to around one (1) hour or so.
 - 3) Finally, because this is official documentation that involves your adherence to official College of Education and Texas State Board of Education Certification policy on professional teacher preparation, you MUST submit a Statement of Certification with each observation log. You WILL NOT receive credit for the observation if this statement is not included with the log.
Type the following in quotes at the end of your document (for EACH observation log you submit):

"I, (your name and student ID here), certify that I have observed teaching and learning dynamics on The Teaching Channel website for a minimum of one (1) hour on this date of ___(date of observation(s) here), having met all requirements for this assignment as outlined by Dr. Reyes, with the understanding that the College of Education requires, per the Texas Administrative Code of the Texas Education Agency, that such observations be documented and reported as partial fulfillment of the minimum thirty (30) hours of field experience required prior to Student Teaching and as part of my professional educator training and preparation."

- c. Submit at the assignment link "Observation Documentation" on the designated week on Blackboard.
- d. NOTE: When you do the video observations, you also must complete the College of Education Observation Log, which you will find on the Home Page of the course on Blackboard. You will submit this by the last day of class. When you fill in the information, write “N/A” for “School” at the top; Write the time you started and ended watching the video for “Time In” and “Time Out”; Write three (3) very short, bulleted descriptions of what you observed in the video (it does not have to include everything that you viewed, but just the activities you would like to highlight); put “Dr. Reyes” for Cooperating Teacher and my email (rreyes9@utep.edu); for “Mode of Observation” put “video-based”.

6. Key Takeaways Paper [100 points]

*NOTE: You may not use any AI (Artificial Intelligence) programs to write any section of your paper in any capacity. An AI check will be conducted if you are suspected of using it in your paper. Any alleged use of AI writing in your paper will immediately be referred to the UTEP Office of Student Conduct.

You will write a 3-4 page analysis based on your observations of teaching and ideas on teaching-learning that you viewed on Teaching Channel. It is essential that you follow the instructions. (See Exemplar: Key Takeaways Paper on the Homepage of the course). Do the following for the Key Takeaways Paper EXACTLY as outlined here:

1. Type on a Word document (1.5 spacing, 12-point Times New Roman font, APA format) (Value: 2 points for each Key Takeaway)
2. At the top of the page provide titles of the videos you will be referring to in the paper. Just put in parenthesis, each separated by a semicolon
3. Then, from the sum of one or multiple videos you viewed briefly write five (5) “key takeaways” (big or important ideas related to teaching or learning) in bullet form from a video or group of videos. Each “takeaway” should note and briefly describe a) a teaching approach or strategy you observed in a video, followed by b) analysis of that approach/strategy and experience by writing of its importance or significance. If one takeaway, for example, involves Cooperative Learning, you will describe how Cooperative Learning was done that you observed in the video. (Value: 2 points for each description of what observed for each Key Takeaway)
4. (Analysis) Next, in 3-4 sentences the importance/significance of that approach for teaching and learning. You must begin your analysis by phrasing the importance/significance of the key takeaway by stating it as, “This is important for me to know as a future educator because....” followed by analysis of how or why the details of what you observed is important or significant for student learning and your teaching. This phrase will ensure that you specifically address the importance/significance of what you observe. (Value: 10 points for all analysis provided with each Key Takeaway)
5. Next, for EACH Key Takeaway, choose a short quote from the textbook to make a connection between that Takeaway you observed and what you studied in the course. But don’t just “throw” the quote in there to “stand alone.” Contextualize it with your own writing before and/or after the quote. The quote (and what you write around it) should support your thinking and analysis on the effectiveness and impact of that teaching approach/idea, in particular as it relates to teaching English language learners. The quote should be no longer than 1-2 sentences. Put it in quotation marks and provide the page number at the end of the quote (use APA format and style; See Purdue OWL APA on Google for help). (Value: 3 points for each quote for each Key Takeaway)
6. After the quote, in 2-3 sentences discuss HOW and/or WHY the content/ideas from that quote “connects” with or supports that particular Takeaway. (*See Exemplar on the Homepage of the course under “Exemplars” to see exactly how a Key Takeway analysis

- needs to be done). Provide a substantive, final concluding analysis that makes such connections. (Value: 3 points for “connection” analysis for each Key Takeaway)
7. Submit at the assignment link “Key Takeaways Paper” at the designated week on Blackboard.
 8. NOTE: Each Key Takeaway in the paper is worth 20points each (5 key takeaways x 20 points each = 100 points). For example, if you forget one Key Takeaway, you will automatically lose 20pts.

This is how each Key Takeaway should be written (see Exemplar on Blackboard):

- I. Brief description of what was observed
- II. “This is important...” sentence, with 2-3 sentences of analysis, telling me WHY it is important (something of substance that goes beyond just the “I can use this in my teaching”-type of language)
- III. Quote from textbook that is surrounded by own wording; the quote should NOT stand alone without any context
- IV. “Connecting” analysis between ideas in the quote, what was observed, and the significance addressed through this “connection”

Please note submission deadlines on Blackboard.

5. Final Exam [100 points]: The Final Exam will be an exam with the following question types: True/False and multiple choice. Many of the questions will be scenarios and problem-solving questions that ask you to utilize the knowledge and skills you have acquired from the course textbook, and the activities in which you engaged daily during this course.

You will only be allowed to use your brain for the final exam. No notes, textbook, or help from your buddies! There are 50 questions (2 points each). You will have 60 minutes to complete the exam.

Once you complete the exam, then that’s all. Congratulations! You have completed the course!

Students with Disabilities

If you have or suspect a disability and need accommodations you should contact Disabled Student Services Office (DSSO) at 747-5148 or at dss@utep.edu or go by Room 106 Union East Building. If you have or believe you have a disability, you may wish to self-identify. You can do so by providing documentation to the Office of disabled Student Services located in Union E Room 106. Students who have been designated as disabled must reactivate their standing with the Office of Disabled Student Services on a yearly basis. Failure to report to this office will place a student on the inactive list and nullify benefits received. If you have a condition which may affect your ability to exit safely from the premises in an emergency or which may cause an emergency during class, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the director of Disabled Student Services.
