Course Materials

Laptop Computer: Software used for this class is all online. Please bring a fully functioning laptop computer. You must have your laptop setup to work with the VITA site printer on January 20, 2023.

If you do not own a computer, the UTEP library loans out laptop computers:

<https://www.utep.edu/technologysupport/TSCenter/TechnologySupportCenter.html#S05>

Remaining course materials will be provided to the students.

Pre-requisites

Completion of ACCT 3322 (Intermediate Accounting II) with a C or better.

Completion of ACCT 3327 (Federal Income Tax - Individuals) with a C or better.

Course Description

This independent study seeks to integrate academic learning, practical application of individual tax concepts, and community service through implementation of the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program for low-income filers.

Accommodations for Students

Students requesting an accommodation based on a disability must register with the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services. If you have or believe you have a disability that may impact your ability to succeed in a class, whether it be online or face-to-face, you may wish to contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) to show documentation of a disability or to register for testing and services. Students who have been designated as disabled must reactivate their standing with the CASS yearly. If you feel that you may have a disability requiring accommodations and/or modifications, contact CASS at (915) 747-5148.

You also can visit the CASS website at <http://sa.utep.edu/cass/> or the CASS office in Room 108 East Union Building.

Student Evaluation

All the items below must be completed. Once completed, the weighting on your final letter grade will be as follows:

Attending certification training	15 %
Completing and passing all certification tests on time	15 %
Attendance (volunteer hours)	30 %
Significant impressions paper	30 %
Instructor discretionary evaluation	10 %

Certification Training and Certification Tests (30 points)

For this course, you must pass the basic, advanced, and foreign student IRS certification online tests. To prepare you for the tests, you must attend the certification training offered as part of this course held on January 19th- 20th.

Attendance (Volunteer Hours) (30 points)

Your presence and your time are the core of this course and of the VITA program, i.e., it doesn't work if you don't show up! Therefore, you are expected to be present at the UTEP VITA site every week that we meet. Further, you must be present for an average minimum of 3 hours per week. This means that if you cannot attend a certain week for a previously excused reason, you should make up the hours missed on different weeks (e.g., at a different site) to maintain the minimum average hours for the semester. If you cannot attend for any reason, please communicate with me the reason for your absence before the absence. Unexplained absences and tardiness will result in a reduction of your class attendance points. To earn a VITA Volunteer certificate, you must volunteer for a minimum of 30 hours.

UTEP VITA site operating days and hours can be found on the course calendar on the last page of this syllabus.

Significant Impressions Paper (30 points)

At the conclusion of the tax season and VITA program, you are required to write and submit a Significant Impressions Paper, in which you should describe your take-away from this volunteer experience.

I suggest you keep a journal throughout the semester, and track particular experiences that you encounter as significant or noteworthy each day, including technical as well as "soft-skills" experiences. For example, this might include experiences in learning the software, dealing with a particular tax deduction new to you that you learned as a result of this program, the number of returns you helped prepare, and your interactions with the community members you helped (without disclosing their names or information, of course!).

I will evaluate the paper based on the following:

- The paper must be written in a thoughtful manner, to let me know that your experience and what you got from it were unique. In other words, I don't want to see vague descriptions of the program, such that all student papers start to look the same. Personal anecdotes relating to the class experience will enhance a student's paper. (50%)
- The paper must be professionally written. Therefore, it is important that the ideas in your paper are well-organized, the paper reads cohesively, and is proofread and free of grammatical errors. (40%)
- While there are no page-limit restrictions, I expect to receive papers anywhere from 3 to 6 pages (double spaced). What matters is not the length, but again, the content and whether you can thoughtfully and professionally express to me what you learned during the semester. (10%)

Discretionary Evaluation (10 points)

At the end of the course, I will evaluate each student's contribution and overall experience, based on my impressions of the student during the entirety of the course. For example, this evaluation will consider whether you were on time, whether you were professional in interacting with the community members, whether you went beyond expectations in resolving a tax question or issue, whether you were enthusiastic, etc.

Modifications to the syllabus, schedule, or course requirements will be announced in class and/or through email. You have the responsibility to be aware of such changes by attending class and checking your email regularly.

REMINDER:

In this VITA program and in the community as a whole, you are the face of UTEP. Please make us proud!
