COURSE DESCRIPTION

Introduction to Music History is designed for students with some background in music, including the ability to read music as well as the experience of listening to and analyzing musical selections by ear. This course is a broad survey of classical art music encompassing all western musical styles and genres from the Medieval to the twentieth century. Course prerequisite: MUSL 1324 or a passing grade on the Music Department Theory Placement test administered by the theory faculty.

OBJECTIVES

- Acquire an understanding of the role that music plays in various cultures and the place of music and artists in society throughout history
- Learn the necessary terminology to knowledgeably discuss and write about music
- Coordinate historical knowledge with listening to music and acquire the ability to identify and describe various styles and genres of music
