COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course examines the methods and resources for teaching literacy in the elementary grades. It focuses on the application of learning theories, methods of evaluation and consideration of individual differences, hands-on instructional practices, and knowledge of state and national standards for Language Arts. Students will design, implement, assess, and critique literacy instruction, with an emphasis on effectively engaging emergent bilingual students (English Language Learners).

COURSE OVERVIEW for Miner Teaching Residents

Welcome to RED 4338 Literacy and Language Arts Methods. This course will provide the tools for you to build a future classroom where students are reading, writing, and learning while enjoying the world of words.

The focus of the course is on the theoretical principles and research-based literacy practices necessary for developing and maintaining a balanced, comprehensive literacy program for young learners (K-8). You will learn how to organize the language arts classroom environment, and the pedagogy, methods, strategies, and materials to meet the individual needs of students, with an emphasis on emergent bilingual students. This course is intended to support you in making connections between theory (what you learn from our readings) and practice (what you are doing in your Miner Residency.) The clinical field tasks that are part of this course are designed to provide additional support to your Miner Teacher Residency experience. Students will engage in authentic teaching tasks, including the planning, rehearsal, and enactment of small group and full class instruction and the analysis of students' writing. Students will also reflect on balanced literacy practices they observe in their assigned classroom. This course is designed to provide students opportunities for formative assessment through peer and faculty feedback on these activities.

The primary text for this course, Literacy for the 21st Century: A balanced approach, will engage you in ideas and balanced literacy practices that center on teaching and learning for diverse populations.

Student learning outcomes:

- Explain lesson components, effective grouping practices, assessments, and independent learning centers in a balanced literacy program and create a motivating, culturally-responsive literacy environment using a variety of literacy tools and a range of texts.
- Recognize the importance of the alphabetic principle to fluent reading and writing and demonstrate knowledge of how to differentiate fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, and writing activities through small group literacy lessons (TEKS ELAR, K-5th: Reading/Beginning Reading Skills: Phonological Awareness; Phonetic Knowledge; Spelling Knowledge; TEKS ELAR, K-5th Developing and Sustaining Foundational Language Skills: Vocabulary, Fluency, Comprehension Strategies and Skills, Author's Purpose and Craft, Response Skills and Composition.)

- Ability to plan effective literacy teaching and assessment activities to develop students' phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension literacy as part of a balanced literacy curriculum (TEKS ELAR, K-5th, Knowledge and Skills for Beginning Reading and Writing; Vocabulary; Fluency, Comprehension Skills, Response Skills, Multiple Genres, Author's Purpose and Craft, Self-sustained Reading and Composition).
- Demonstrate knowledge of research-based comprehension strategy instruction and demonstrate instructional procedures for explicit and embedded comprehension assessment and instruction (TEKS ELAR, K-5th Comprehension Skills, Response Skills, Multiple Genres/literary elements and genres, and Author's Purpose and Craft).
- Identify discussion and writing methods to interpret and comprehend a variety of text genres (TEKS ELAR, K-5th: Comprehension Skills; Response Skills; Multiple Genres, Author's Purpose and Craft, Composition, and Inquiry and Research).
- Demonstrate knowledge of developmentally appropriate writing workshop routines and writing instruction that includes process composing strategies and formative and summative writing assessments and activities (TEKS ELAR, K-5th: Composition: Conventions, Writing Process and Multiple Texts).
- Promote deep knowledge of a content subject topic and academic language using digital and print texts and integrate literacy learning objectives with real world problems through sequenced literacy balanced activities, questioning, and meaningful discussions (TEKS ELAR, 1st-5th Inquiry and Research).
- Teach content and language objectives using balanced literacy components and teaching strategies that support English Learners' and struggling learners' language and inquiry skill development (TEKS ELAR, 1st-5th Inquiry and Research).
- Demonstrate professional practices and responsibilities—professional demeanor and ethics; reflect on your practice and sets goals; demonstrate initiative and seek resources; and effectively communicate with professional faculty and staff.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Clinical Field Experience

Clinical field experience assignments for this course will be carried out in the student’s assigned classroom for the Miner Residency. Assignments that are to be conducted in Miner Residency classrooms are noted in the syllabus. It is the student’s responsibility to communicate with the classroom teacher about the expectations for this course. The student should notify me if there are any issues.

Lesson Plan for Teaching a Balanced Literacy Practice (Draft 1 = 5 points; Final Draft = 15 points)

You will create a lesson plan for an interactive read aloud or interactive writing lesson. You will sign up for the literacy practice on Blackboard, which will be explained in class. Refer to the course calendar for the deadline of the first draft, final draft, and for the date you will share your video in class (“problem of practice assignment”). It is your responsibility to make sure that the lesson plan you sign up for will work for your schedule AND the schedule of the school to which you are assigned.

You should plan a lesson that would take approximately 20 minutes to teach. The focus is on the teaching procedures and classroom dialogue integral for enacting the balanced literacy practices; it is not on independent assignments, projects, crafts, etc. Your lesson plan should include the following components:

1. Identify the balanced literacy practice of interactive read aloud or interactive writing or writing minilesson you will teach.
2. Identify the learning objectives of the lesson;
3. Identify of grade level TEKS for ELAR and content subject (if applicable)--TEKS should correspond with your lesson objective;
4. Provide the title and author of text(s) (interactive read aloud only) and any additional materials or resources needed for the lesson.
5. Provide your lesson frame, that is a statement of the learning objectives in student friendly language (e.g., “we will” and “I will”).
6. Outline your teaching procedures to include the following elements
  - What you are doing and what you anticipate students will be doing (teacher actions and student actions)?
  - What are the learning tasks that support diverse student needs and the structure and grouping for the learning tasks?

- What are the components of the lesson (introduction, developmentally appropriate procedures for learning activity, and closure) that support the lesson objective?
  - What are the pre-planned questions to check for understanding and prompt students' thinking?
7. Include a plan to support varied students' learning needs. Include initials for specific students and describe the modifications that align with their IEP or 504 plans.
  8. Identify academic language important to the learning objectives and how you will support students in practicing and learning this language.

Teaching and reflecting on a “problem of practice” as part of a peer learning community [video] (5 points)

You will provide your assigned cooperating teacher for your Miner Residency a copy of your lesson plan for his/her approval and schedule a day and time to teach the lesson. You will need to find a peer in the residency to videotape the lesson or ask the teacher. Check also with your teacher about students that do not have signed waivers from families for videotaping and make sure these students are sitting outside the video frame.

On the scheduled day for the peer video viewing conferences, you should be prepared with the following to facilitate your small group discussion:

1. A 3-5 minute (MAX!) video clip of your teaching on a laptop computer;
2. A prepared description of the clip that will set up the context for peer viewers;
3. An identified “problem of practice” that you would like feedback on, and
4. 1-2 key questions that will help guide discussion.

Items 3 and 4 should be typed and printed with four copies to share OR you should have a Powerpoint to display on your laptop.

A problem of practice:

- has a focus on instruction (what students and teachers are doing and the content being addressed);
- is directly observable;
- is actionable, and
- will make a difference in student learning.

Examples of problems of practice include: Promoting student engagement, use of a variety of teaching strategies to make concepts clear and differentiate instruction, questioning strategies that elicit students' thinking, scaffolding student learning, monitoring and adjusting instruction, etc.

During the conferences, peers will respond to the presenters' questions by providing their interpretation of the teacher's and students' behaviors and making recommendations for improvement.

You will be graded on your preparation to present and your engagement with others' presentations.

If you are not present and prepared with your video on the scheduled day for video viewing conferences (see course schedule), you will be required to submit a 1.5-page reflection on your teaching that addresses the POP description above.

Literacy Writing Assessment and Plan for Re-engagement lesson

For this assignment you will be analyzing a class set of student writing. There are three parts to this lesson: 1) creating a rubric, 2) grading student work and providing feedback, and 3) reflecting on whole-class learning and planning a re-engagement lesson for three students.

You can do this assignment independently or with a partner of your choice. I strongly recommend that your partner be assigned to the same residency classroom, however, so that s/he knows the students whose work you are analyzing.

1. Rubric (4 points)

You will create a student-friendly rubric for the writing assignment that evaluates student learning in the areas defined by the ELAR TEKS and learning objectives for the lesson. You should revise the rubric based on my feedback before continuing to the second task.

2. Grading student work and providing feedback (7 points)

Using the rubric created in Part 1, you will grade the students' writing and provide written feedback for ALL students. Upload to blackboard a scanned copy of your completed rubric and feedback for the three students for whom you will plan a re-engagement lesson.

3. Reflecting on whole-class learning and planning a re-engagement lesson (18 + possible 2 points extra credit)

You will write a 4-page reflection on whole-class learning and describe a re-engagement lesson for three students. The reflection will include the following components:

- A description of the teaching context, including teacher, grade level, and a brief description of the lesson for which the writing assessment was produced;
- A statement of the learning objectives and ELAR TEKS;
- A summary of whole-class learning in graphic (chart or table) or narrative form. Your analysis must identify and discuss patterns of learning related to ELAR TEKS for the class;
- Identification of three learners that need additional support and a description of why you chose the students. (At least one student should have an identified learning need (e.g., ELL, student with IEP);
- Identification of TEKS and learning objectives for your re-engagement lesson;
- A description of a re-engagement lesson (individual, small group, or full class lesson) and formative assessment that will support the three identified students in clarifying, practicing, or developing the learning objective, and
- A description of revisions and edits you made to your reflection based on peer feedback (2 points extra credit-you must identify who read your paper)

Your reflection will be graded on your discussion of the above points; your use of evidence to support your interpretations (e.g., specific reference to students' performance as measured by your rubric and examples from students' writing); the depth and thoughtfulness of your analysis, and your ability to plan a re-engagement lesson that targets the learning skills in which students need additional support. Your reflection will also be graded on how well organized your writing is, the clarity of your writing, and your revisions based on peer and instructor feedback.

Blackboard "Jigsaw" Discussion Forum (3 points)

You will be asked to respond in one or two paragraphs to a discussion prompt on Blackboard that will address key topics of the week's reading. Your forum response is due before class. This assignment is a "jigsaw" forum as you will be assigned different prompts from your classmates and expected to share your response with your peers in class.

Refer to the course calendar for the forum due date. Forum grades will be based on timely completion and your reference to the assigned course readings in your response. As the purpose of the forum is to prepare for class discussion, you will receive NO credit for late submission.

Quizzes (3 points each; 15 points total)

You are assigned five quizzes during the semester. These quizzes are to be done out of class on Blackboard. The purpose of the quizzes is to prepare for class discussion, thus NO credit will be given for late assignments. The topics of each quiz corresponds to the assigned readings for the week. Refer to the course calendar for quiz due dates.

Literature Circle (5 points)

On a designated week (see calendar) you will participate in a "literature circle" to discuss a course reading with peers. You will be given full credit if you are present and prepared to discuss the reading. If you cannot attend class, you need to arrange with the instructor an alternative assignment.

Analysis of a balanced literacy practice (6 points)

This assignment involves writing a 600-word essay that closely describes and analyzes the balanced literacy practice of interactive read aloud, interactive writing, or writing minilesson. If these practices are not taught in your residency classroom the week the assignment is due, you can reflect on any balanced literacy practice that is in the compendium of our course textbook. There are three foci for your essay:

- Instructional practices of balanced literacy with a focus on what moves the teacher makes, what student interactions these instructions promote and what resources are used (e.g., technology, anchor charts);
- Your perspective of the instructional practice you observed (e.g., how instruction is differentiated, how the teacher is monitoring and adjusting instruction, how learning is organized and behavior is managed, what kinds of thinking the teacher is promoting, what surprised you, etc.), and;
- Connections between your observations of the balanced literacy practice and course readings.

Public Library Visit (2 points extra credit)

Visit the children's book section at a local public library. Peruse several picture or chapter books of any genre that would be appropriate for a interactive read aloud. Consider what would make the book ideal for an interactive read aloud and how it might be used as a mentor text for writing or to teach reading skills and strategies. Ideally, you will identify a book for teaching your interactive reading lesson or writing mini-lesson.

Submit to Blackboard proof of your library visit. This can be a receipt for checking out books or a picture of you in the children's section of the library.

If you are at a school site, you should still visit a public library rather than your school library.

Fostering literacy independence - Book reflection (4 points extra credit)

For this assignment you will read the book The daily 5: Fostering literacy independence in the elementary grades by Gail Boushey and Joan Moser. It is on course reserve at the university library. Your reflection will be 1.5-2 pages and will do four things:

- Summarize your learning from the book.
- Describe the value of the Daily 5 approach as compared to a model of instruction that is primarily teacher directed.
- Reflect on how elements of the Daily 5 are evident in your cooperating teacher's classroom or how your CT's classroom might benefit from independent literacy opportunities.
- Reflect on how you might incorporate this approach in your future classroom.

The following questions should guide your summary:

What kinds of routines and procedures will foster independent literacy behaviors in students? How might "classroom management" be integrated in the literacy curriculum such that you don't feel that you need to "manage" students? What kinds of classroom routines and practices will allow you to meet with small groups or individual students for conferences? What does the process of building literacy independence look like? What implications does an independent learning model have on assessment?

I will determine whether you receive all the extra credit points based on whether you include the above four elements in your reflection and whether your reflection demonstrates you read the book and thoughtfully reflected on your learning.

TOTAL POINTS FROM WHICH YOUR FINAL GRADE WILL BE CALCULATED ARE 83 POINTS.

ASSIGNMENT REQUIREMENTS AND LATE SUBMISSION POLICY

Written work must be high quality—clearly written, organized, and with correct mechanics. For each written assignment, please use 12-point font (Garamond, Cambria, or Times New Roman), one-inch margins, and double-spacing. Work that does not meet expectations will be returned for revision. Rubrics for assignments are in the appendix to this syllabus and on Blackboard.

All assignments must be turned in on time. Late assignments will be deducted 1 points of the grade for each day late with no assignments accepted two weeks after the deadline. OTHER THAN A DOCUMENTED MEDICAL EMERGENCY OF YOUR OWN OR A FAMILY MEMBER WHO YOU CARE FOR, DOCUMENTED ONGOING MEDICAL ISSUES OR PREGNANCY THAT AFFECTS YOUR PERFORMANCE, A DEATH IN THE FAMILY, HUMAN CAUSED TRAGEDY OR SERIOUS POLITICAL UPHEAVAL, OR NATURAL DISASTER THERE IS NO EXCEPTION TO THIS RULE. DON'T ASK. I will simply refer you to this policy if you do. There are two extra credit assignments you can do to make up lost points. While you might feel this policy is strict, it is my attempt to honor those students' efforts who turn in assignments on time and to not provide exceptions unevenly for those that might request deadline extensions.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Your attendance and active participation are vital to this course. If you have health, childcare, or other concerns that may necessitate missing class, please let me know.

According to UTEP Curriculum and Classroom Policies, “When, in the judgment of the instructor, a student has been absent to such a degree as to impair his or her status relative to credit for the course, the instructor may drop the student from the class with a grade of “W” before the course drop deadline and with a grade of “F” after the course drop deadline.” See academic regulations in the UTEP Undergraduate Catalog for a list of excused absences.

If I find that, due to non-performance in the course, you are at risk of failing, I will drop you from the course. I will provide 48 hours advance notice via email.

OR

If you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, please let me know and then contact the Registrar’s Office to initiate the drop process. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an “F” for the course.

---

PARTICIPATION NORMS

- Complete all readings before class and be prepared to apply, discuss, write about, and raise questions about what you read. Use the guiding questions in the course calendar to focus your reading.
- Bring the textbook and weekly assigned readings to each class.
- Turn off e-mail and cell phone. Laptops will be needed for the purposes of taking notes and occasionally accessing the Internet, but we expect you will be focused on our work together in class. Please tell me if you must take an emergency call or respond to an emergency text during times other than breaks.
- Stay mindful of whether you need to “step up” (speak up) or “step back” (listen) during classroom discussions.

If participation norms are not followed, you will be asked to meet with me and make a plan to address points for improvement.

DISABILITY POLICY

If you have or believe you have a disability, you may wish to self-identify. You can do so by providing documentation to the Center for Accommodations and Support (CASS) formerly known as the Disabled Student Services Office (DSSO) located in Union E Room 203. Students who have been designated as disabled must reactivate their standing with the Center for Accommodations and Support (CASS) on a yearly basis. Failure to report to this office will place a student on the inactive list and nullify benefits received. If you have a condition which may affect your ability to exit safely from the premises in an emergency or which may cause an emergency during class, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the director of the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS)-- <http://sa.utep.edu/cass/>. You may call 747-5148 for general information about the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

STANDARDS OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of scholastic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP) and available in the Office of the Dean of Students, may result in sanctions from disciplinary probation, to failing grades on the work in question, to failing grades in the course, to suspension or dismissal among others.

EQUAL EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY

In order to create equal educational opportunities in the class, all students are expected to demonstrate respect for the diverse voices and individual differences in the class. Particularly, no person shall be excluded from participation in, denied benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity sponsored or conducted by the University of Texas at El Paso on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, disability, gender identity, or sexual orientation.
