COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course introduces methods and resources for teaching literacy in the elementary grades. The course will provide research-based literacy practices and prepare students to engage young learners in reading, writing, speaking, and listening experiences with print and multimodal texts. Students will learn, practice, apply, and critique literacy instructional methods, with an emphasis on emergent bilingual students (English language learners). Ten (10) hours of field experience is required. Prerequisite: RED 2330 and ECED 4335.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Welcome to RED 4338 Literacy and Language Arts Methods! This course will provide the tools for you to build a future classroom where students are reading, writing, and learning while enjoying the world of words.

The focus of the course is on the theoretical principles and research-based literacy practices necessary for developing and maintaining a balanced, comprehensive literacy program for young learners (K-8). You will learn how to organize the language arts classroom environment, and the pedagogy, methods, strategies, and materials to meet the individual needs of students, with an emphasis on emergent bilingual students. A core part of your learning will be six hours of field experience in a classroom at an elementary school with an experienced teacher and his or her students. You will engage in authentic teaching tasks including the planning, rehearsal, and enactment of small group and full class instruction and the analysis of student work (thus fulfilling the extra four hours of required field experience for the course). You will also be reading a variety of texts, including ethnographic portraits of rich classroom learning environments, as a way to engage with various ideas and models of teaching and learning. This work will be split between the K-6 classroom setting and a professional development space at the school site.

Student learning outcomes:

- Explain lesson components, effective grouping practices, assessments, and independent learning centers in a balanced literacy program and create a motivating, culturally-responsive literacy environment using a variety of literacy tools and a range of texts.
- Compare and contrast language and literacy contexts that help learners develop academic language during field observations and support classroom teachers with a variety of language learning opportunities and ongoing assessments to support second language development (TEKS ELA and R, K-6th), Developing and Sustaining Foundational Language Skills: Listening, Speaking, Discussion and Thinking: Oral Language and Vocabulary.

- Recognize the importance of the alphabetic principle to fluent reading and writing and plan differentiated fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, and writing activities for small group literacy lessons to develop students’ knowledge of phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency and comprehension of a variety of genres (TEKS ELA and R, K-5th: Reading/Beginning Reading Skills: Phonological Awareness; Phonetic Knowledge; Spelling Knowledge; TEKS ELA and R, K-5th: Developing and Sustaining Foundational Language Skills: Vocabulary, Fluency, Comprehension Strategies and Skills, Author’s Purpose and Craft, Response Skills and Composition.)

- Ability to plan effective literacy teaching and assessment activities to develop students’ phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension literacy as part of a balanced literacy curriculum (TEKS ELA and R, K-5th, Knowledge and Skills for Beginning Reading and Writing; Vocabulary; Fluency, Comprehension Skills, Response Skills, Multiple Genres, Author’s Purpose and Craft, Self-sustained Reading and Composition).

- Demonstrate knowledge of research-based comprehension strategy instruction and demonstrate instructional procedures for explicit and embedded comprehension assessment and instruction (TEKS ELA and R, K-5th: Comprehension Skills, Response Skills, Multiple Genres/literary elements and genres, and Author’s Purpose and Craft).

- Identify discussion and writing methods to interpret and comprehend a variety of text genres (TEKS ELA and R, K-5th: Comprehension Skills; Response Skills; Multiple Genres, Author’s Purpose and Craft, Composition, and Inquiry and Research).

- Plan developmentally appropriate writing workshop routines and writing instruction that includes process composing strategies and formative and summative writing assessments and activities (TEKS ELA and R, K-5th: Composition: Conventions, Writing Process and Multiple Texts).

- Promote deep knowledge of a content subject topic and academic language using digital and print texts and integrate literacy learning objectives with real world problems through sequenced literacy balanced activities, questioning, and meaningful discussions (TEKS ELA and R, 1st-5th Inquiry and Research).

- Teach content and language objectives using balanced literacy components and teaching strategies that support English Learners’ and struggling learners’ language and inquiry skill development (TEKS ELA and R, 1st-5th Inquiry and Research).

- Demonstrate professional practices and responsibilities—professional demeanor and ethics; reflect on your practice and sets goals; demonstrate initiative and seek resources; and effectively communicate with professional faculty and staff.

State Board of Education Certification (SBEC) and Professional Responsibilities (PPR) EC-12 competencies (https://tea.texas.gov)

This core course incorporates the following State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) standards and Professional Responsibilities (PPR) EC-12 competencies:

- Distinguishes ongoing formative assessments to evaluate students’ oral language development and plans & provides culturally responsive literacy instruction based on students’ developmental characteristics and needs (SBEC, Standard 1; PPR I, Competency 1).
Knows the importance of phonological awareness & the alphabet principle and plans & provides learning experiences that promote higher-level thinking, critical reading, and writing (SBEC, Standards 2 & 3; PPR I, Competency 1).

Understands the stages of literacy development and design differentiated literacy assessments & experiences based on the developmental needs of students (SBEC, Standard 4; PPR I, Competency 2).

Models word recognition and comprehension strategies and organizes a language arts program and designs effective literacy instruction and assessment based on appropriate learning goals and objectives to encourage students’ self-regulation (SBEC, Standards 5 & 7; PPR I, Competency 3).

Understands the importance of fluency to reading comprehension and plans effective student-centered instruction with appropriate teacher support and feedback (SBEC, Standard 6; PPR I, Competency 4).

Provides developmentally appropriate opportunities for students to engage in instructional writing routines and discussions that emphasize the writing processes, written conventions, and writing a variety of genres (SBEC, Standards 8 & 9).

 Applies principles of integrated content learning and research strategies to promote inquiry skills and viewing/representing strategies as tools for learning (SBEC, Standards 11& 12; PPR I, III; Technology Applications I-V, Competency 7).

Uses a variety of literacy assessments to monitor student achievement and plan a balanced & motivating literacy program with high expectations for students’ reading and writing growth (SBEC, Standard10; PPR I, III; Technology Applications I-V, Competency 10).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Clinical Field Experience
During this semester your clinical field experience will include 6 hours of active observations and participation during your cooperating teacher’s literacy block. If you are currently enrolled in the math methods class, the RED 4338 hours are in addition to the required hours for your math class. Your school field experiences and work with a cooperating teacher will provide you with a rich understanding of yourself as a professional educator and prepare you for student teaching and your professional career.

You are expected to maintain a professional demeanor and ethical conduct when at the school site. You can do this by contributing to the school community in the following ways:

- On field experience days check in at the front office and wear your ID badge.
- Arrive at your cooperating teacher’s classroom at the agreed upon date and on time. Avoid cancelling and rescheduling so as to respect his/her time.
- Dress appropriately for your work in schools.
- Maintain professional communication with your cooperating teacher, asking for regular feedback on how you are participating in the classroom community.
- Do not use your cell phone (cell phones must be on silent and out of sight) and refrain from talking to your partner in your cooperating teacher’s classroom.
- View your cooperating teacher as a role model and demonstrate a positive attitude.
- Be prepared, and take initiative to support your cooperating teacher and interact with students.
Field Experience Student Evaluation and Field-Based Clinical Assignment Log Sheet (10 points)

Based on your major (EC-6 or 4-8), you and a partner will be assigned to a grade level and a cooperating teacher at the beginning of the semester. You and your partner should email your cooperating teacher the first week of class to introduce yourself and schedule a brief meeting. This meeting must take place before beginning your field experience. At the initial meeting, be prepared to discuss your cooperating teacher’s classroom management plan and teaching methods. Also, discuss how you can actively participate on field experience days.

You should also use this meeting to schedule:

• Field experience dates and times (see field experience dates below) and
• TEKS for your two balanced literacy lessons and possible dates (see deadlines in course schedule);

These assignments are described in this syllabus.

Plan to spend 1 hour and 30 minutes in your cooperating teacher’s classroom at any agreed upon time during the following weeks to complete your six field experience hours: February 11-15; March 4-8; March 25-29; April 15-19.

Keep track of your hours by maintaining the UTEP observation log-in sheet. Write the date, time-in/out for each observation, and ask your cooperating teacher to initial your log for each classroom visit.

Your cooperating teacher will evaluate your field experience by providing a rating (satisfactory/unsatisfactory) for your:

• Professional behavior—professional appearance, timeliness, communication, active participation, and ethical conduct.
• Teaching knowledge—knowledge of literacy tools, grouping practices, differentiated teaching, culturally responsive teaching, and integrated technology with literacy, science, social studies and math instruction.
• Personal growth—collaborates with professionals, accepts constructive feedback, and sets professional goals to improve teaching.

To successfully complete this course, you must turn in a completed Field-based Clinical Assignment Log Sheet documenting six hours of field experience and your cooperating teacher’s evaluation (Field Experience Student Evaluation) with a satisfactory rating in professional behavior at the last face-to-face class. A copy of your Field-based Clinical Assignment Log Sheet and Field Experience Notes (1-3) will be placed in your file in the field placement office.

You will receive the full 10 points if the completed log documenting six hours of field experience and evaluation is submitted (with a satisfactory rating in professional behavior) on time.

Field Experience Notes (2 notes at 5 points each/10 points total)

You will write two 600-word essay describing your field experiences. (You will not be required to write an essay for each field experience as I want to encourage your active engagement in the classroom. As well, you will be spending one hour of your time in the field teaching and will be collecting student work to analyze.) There are four foci for your two essays, which are described in greater detail in a handout you will receive the first week of class.
• Instructional practices of balanced literacy with a focus on what moves the teacher makes, what student interactions these instructions promote and what resources are used (e.g., technology, anchor charts);
• Your perspective of the instructional practice/s you observed;
• Connections between field experience observations and course readings; and
• Reflection on your own participation in the setting.

The essays should be typed and posted to Blackboard by the deadlines (see calendar).

Team facilitators for literacy workstations

As part of this course, you will work with teams (3-5 members) and facilitate literacy workstations with grade level students at the school. These activities are part of the balanced literacy approach described in our primary course text (Tompkins, 2018). This is a 3-part assignment: part 1: each team submits one group lesson plan for two workstation activities; part 2: each team member teaches a literacy workstation activity or lesson to a group of students; and, part 3: Peers provide feedback on execution of lesson. Teams will be assigned to one of the following four assignments:

1. Vocabulary workstations (Ch.7) and word work activities (Ch. 5, 7, and compendium).
2. Reading fluency workstations (Ch. 6 and compendium)
3. Comprehension strategy (Ch. 8, see especially figure 8-5 on p. 271) and comprehension text factor (Ch. 9) workstations.
4. Writing workstations (Ch. 10 and compendium).

Each workstation will require a lesson plan as described in part 1. Facilitation of the lesson is described in part 2.

Part 1: Literacy workstation lesson plan (10 pts). I will assist your team on the planning day (see calendar) in choosing a literacy topic to focus your literacy workstation activity or lesson, and on selecting teaching methods, as well as in choosing an authentic text. Each assignment poses a lot of options for teaching topics. For example, a fluency lesson might focus on high frequency “M” words, word identification strategies, and/or reading prosody. Your team has a number of options for methods to teach fluency, too, such as “chant and clap” or “listen to read” or “read to someone” activities. The course textbook and the Florida Center for Reading Research can be sources for ideas. The team lesson plan should include the following components for EACH lesson or activity:

• Objective for the lesson or activity and the name of the team facilitator/s.
• TEKS standard addressed in the lesson or activity.
• Materials including title/author of authentic text(s) to be used. (No worksheets.)
• Plan for a brief introduction of children (should you not know them).
• Details of your instructional plan: Procedures for teacher modeling of the lesson or activity (“I do”) and procedures for student engagement in the literacy activity (“we do” and/or “you do”);
• Procedures for how you will make sense of what students are learning (i.e., formative assessment).

The lesson plan is due on Blackboard one week before facilitating the lesson. Your team will review my feedback on your lesson plan and make corrections before the designated day to teach.
Part 2: Teaching the literacy workstations (10 pts). Teams facilitating workstations will teach a 12-minute workstation activity twice as students rotate groups. Each group member will lead the literacy workstation with a small group of students that are seated at different tables. Your evaluation is based on your being present, prepared, engaged, and open to peer feedback.

Part 3: Literacy workstation and small group peer feedback (participation grade). Your peers will serve as your primary source of feedback for this assignment. Peers will take notes on your facilitation, attending to workstation purpose; teacher modeling; student engagement; quality of teacher prompts; and formative assessment. Peers will also help you rehearse your lesson prior to the formal lesson with students. This is an opportunity for you as a facilitator and for your peers to learn about the activities. Participation grades will reflect how professional and helpful peers are during the rehearsal, lesson, and feedback sessions.

Field Experience: Balanced Literacy Instructional Practices and Assessment

As part of your field experience you will demonstrate your ability to teach balanced literacy instructional practices. The three parts of this assignment represent a cycle of teaching focused on student learning. You will plan for instruction and assessment based on grade level TEKS and your understanding of students’ needs; you will engage in teaching and creating an environment for student learning; and you will assess student learning, provide feedback, and plan for further instruction. This assignment is additionally focused on your professional learning as part of a supportive peer learning community. You will be required to videotape your teaching and engage in a video viewing session with peers focused on a particular “problem of practice” you identify in your teaching as described in Part 2 below.

Part 1: Two Lesson Plans for Teaching Balanced Literacy Practices (6 points each/12 points total)

You and your assigned partner will plan for teaching both an interactive read aloud and shared reading. You can discuss with your cooperating teacher whether you will do this as whole class instruction or small group. The deadline for the lesson plan 1 (interactive read aloud) is February 19th and for lesson plan 2 (shared reading) is April 2nd. You will not receive a grade for your first submission, only feedback. The final drafts with your cooperating teacher’s signature are due respectively: March 5th and April 16th.

Your lessons will be approximately 15-20 minutes and no longer than 25 minutes. Meet with your cooperating teacher to identify the literacy TEKs for each of your lessons. I encourage you to make your shared reading lesson an integrated literacy and content subject lesson with math, science, or social studies. In your lesson plan:

1. Identify of the grade level and learning objectives’
2. Identify of grade level TEKS for ELAR and content subject (if applicable);
3. Provide the title and author of text(s);
4. Identify the balanced literacy teaching practice you will teach (interactive read-aloud or shared reading);
5. Describe your classroom management plan and plan for transitions. (This should be in line with the practices of your cooperating teacher and consider the specifics of your planned lesson (e.g., how students will move from seats to the rug, where they will sit, how you will get students’ attention, and how you will address problematic behavior);
6. Describe a plan for recognizing and reinforcing desired student behaviors and accomplishments;
7. List the resources and materials needed for the lesson;
8. Describe the variety of learners in your cooperating teacher’s class and how you will differentiate instruction to meet these students’ needs;
9. Describe your plan for teaching academic vocabulary that will be integral to your lesson, and
10. Outline the teaching points and activities for your lesson plan. Your plan should include detailed procedures for the following elements:
   o Framing the lesson: State the learning objectives in student friendly language.
   o Engaging learners: Raise inquiry questions and tap into students’ background knowledge in order to create interest and curiosity about the lesson topic.
   o Small group or partner purposeful talk: Provide opportunities for focused “micro-discussions” using pre-planned “seed questions” to guide student conversations towards the desired learning outcome.
   o Points to check for understanding: Integrate informal assessments at multiple points throughout the lesson and plan on how you will ensure you are measuring the groups’ understanding (not just individual students who volunteer).
   o Closing product, question, or task: Close the lesson in a manner that provides evidence the learning objective was met. (This portion of the lesson will most likely be an oral question or a quick write as it should not take more than a few minutes.)

Part 2: [video] Teaching and reflecting on a “problem of practice” as part of a peer learning community (5 points each/10 points total)

You and your partner will provide your cooperating teacher a copy of your approved lesson plans and schedule days and times to teach the lessons in his/her classroom. Lesson plan 1 should be scheduled for the week of March 4-8 and lesson plan 2 should be scheduled for the week of April 15-19. Your partner or your cooperating teacher will videotape the lesson. (We will discuss how to best document the lesson using video in class.) Teaching the two balanced literacy lessons counts as one hour towards your required 6 hours of field-based experience.

On the scheduled day for the peer video viewing conferences, you and your partner should be prepared with the following:

1. A 3-5 minute (MAX!) clip of your teaching on a laptop computer;
2. A prepared description of the clip that will set up the context for peer viewers;
3. An identified “problem of practice” that you would like feedback on, and
4. 1-2 questions key questions that will help guide discussion.

Items 3 and 4 should typed and printed with four copies to share.

A problem of practice:
- has a focus on instruction (what students and teachers are doing and the content being addressed);
- is directly observable;
- is actionable, and
- will make a difference in student learning.

Examples of problems of practice include: Promoting student engagement, use of a variety of teaching strategies to make concepts clear and differentiate instruction, questioning strategies and higher-order thinking, scaffolding student learning, monitoring and adjusting instruction, etc.
During the peer conferences, you and your peers will respond to the presenters’ questions by providing your interpretation of the teachers’ and students’ behaviors and making recommendations for improvement.

You will be graded on your preparation to present and your engagement with other’s presentations. You will also be asked to do an in-class writing assignment where you reflect on your teaching and your peers’ feedback.

If you are not present and prepared with your video on the scheduled day for video viewing conferences (see calendar), you will be required to submit a two-page reflection on your teaching.

You should also schedule a brief conference with your cooperating teacher for his/her feedback on your teaching.

Part 3: Literacy Writing Assessment and Plan for Re-engagement lesson

For the literacy writing assessment, you and your partner will communicate with your cooperating teacher to identify a formative writing assessment s/he has planned. You will observe the lesson and collect student work to analyze. There are three parts to this lesson: 1) creating a rubric, 2) grading student work and providing feedback, and 3) reflecting on whole-class learning and planning a re-engagement lesson for three students.

1. Rubric (3 points)

You will create a rubric for the writing assignment that evaluates student learning in the areas defined by the ELAR TEKS and learning objectives for the lesson. You should revise the rubric based on instructor feedback before continuing to the second task.

2. Grading student work and providing feedback (5 points)

Using the rubric created in Part 1, you and your partner will grade student work and provide written feedback. Return student work with your feedback to the cooperating teacher. Upload a scanned copy of your completed rubric for each student to Blackboard. (Please redact any student names in documents you upload.)

3. Reflecting on whole-class learning and planning a re-engagement lesson (15 points)

You and your partner will write a 3-page reflection on whole-class learning and describe a re-engagement lesson for three students. (Please use pseudonyms for students.) The reflection will include the following components:

- A description of the teaching context, including teacher, grade level, and a brief description of the lesson for which the writing assessment was produced;
- A statement of the learning objectives and ELAR TEKS;
- A summary of whole-class learning in graphic (chart or table) or narrative form. Your analysis must identify patterns of learning related to ELAR TEKS within and across learners;
- Identification of three learners that need additional support and a description of why you chose the students. (At least one student should have an identified learning need (e.g., ELL, student with IEP);
- Identification of a learning objective for your re-engagement lesson;
- A description of a re-engagement lesson (individual, small group, or full class lesson) and formative assessment that will support the three identified students in clarifying, practicing, or developing the learning objective, and
• A description of revisions and edits you made to your reflection based on peer feedback on the last day of class.

Attach a photocopy of the writing assignments and rubrics for the three students as an appendix. Names should be redacted.

Your reflection will be graded on your discussion of the above points; your use of evidence to support your interpretations (e.g., specific reference to students’ performance as measured by your rubric); the depth and thoughtfulness of your analysis, and your ability to plan a re-engagement lesson that targets the learning skills in which students need additional support. Your reflection will also be graded on how well-organized your writing is, the clarity of your writing, and your revisions based on peer and instructor feedback.

Class Participation (10 points)

Your participation grade will be based on your adherence to the following expectations:

• Complete all readings before class and be prepared to apply, discuss, write about, and raise questions about what you read. Use the guiding questions in the course calendar to focus your reading.
• Bring the textbook and weekly assigned readings to each class.
• Turn off e-mail and cell phone. Laptops will be needed for the purposes of taking notes and occasionally accessing the Internet, but we expect you will be focused on our work together in class. Please tell me if you must take an emergency call or respond to an emergency text during times other than breaks.
• Stay mindful of whether you need to “step up” (speak up) or “step back” (listen) during classroom discussions.
• Help your peers rehearse for the literacy workshop and provide them with feedback.
• Engage with peers in providing feedback to their video presentations of balanced literacy instruction and their final reflection paper.
• “Pop” quizzes on assigned reading.

If participation standards are not being met, you will be asked to meet with me and make a plan to address points for improvement.

Blackboard “Jigsaw” Discussion Forums and Questions for Guest Speaker (5 points)

You will be asked to respond in one or two paragraphs to discussion prompts on Blackboard that will address key topics of the week’s reading. Forum responses are due before class. This assignment is a “jigsaw” forum as you will be assigned different prompts and expected to share your response with your peers in class. See calendar for assigned dates.

You will also be expected to post questions about the reading for our guest speaker, Professor Mike Rose (UCLA) week 11 before class.

Forum grades will be based on timely completion. NO credit for late submission.

ASSIGNMENT POLICY

All assignments are to be submitted on Blackboard by the due date unless prior arrangements have been made. Points will be deducted for late submission. Written work must be high quality—clearly written, organized, and with correct mechanics. For each written assignment, please use 12-point font (Garamond, Cambria, or Times New Roman), one-inch margins, and double-spacing. Work that does not meet expectations will be returned for revision. Rubrics for assignments are in the appendix to this syllabus and on Blackboard.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Your attendance and active participation are vital to this course. The Teacher Education Department considers missing more than one day of class as excessive. After two times being late for class (tardy) it will count as one unexcused absence. After two absences, the student may be dropped for lack of attendance. If you need to miss class email me immediately. Wear your UTEP ID card in a lanyard each time you attend class and observe in classrooms.

DISABILITY POLICY

If you have or believe you have a disability, you may wish to self-identify. You can do so by providing documentation to the Center for Accommodations and Support (CASS) formerly known as the Disabled Student Services Office (DSSO) located in Union E Room 203. Students who have been designated as disabled must reactivate their standing with the Center for Accommodations and Support (CASS) on a yearly basis. Failure to report to this office will place a student on the inactive list and nullify benefits received. If you have a condition which may affect your ability to exit safely from the premises in an emergency or which may cause an emergency during class, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the director of the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS)--http://sa.utep.edu/cass/. You may call 747-5148 for general information about the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

STANDARDS OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of scholastic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP) and available in the Office of the Dean of Students, may result in sanctions from disciplinary probation, to failing grades on the work in question, to failing grades in the course, to suspension or dismissal among others.

EQUAL EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY

In order to create equal educational opportunities in the class, all students are expected to demonstrate respect for the diverse voices and individual differences in the class. Particularly, no person shall be excluded from participation in, denied benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity sponsored or conducted by the University of Texas at El Paso on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, disability, gender identity, or sexual orientation. Any member of the University community who engages in discrimination or other conduct in violation of University policy is subject to the full range of disciplinary action, up to and including separation from the University. Complaints regarding discrimination should be reported to the University's Equal Opportunity Office. Inquiries regarding applicable policies should be addressed to the University's Equal Opportunity Office, Kelly Hall, 3rd Floor, 915.747.5662 or eoaa@utep.edu<mailto:eoaa@utep.edu>

Week 3

2/5

Parkland

Balanced literacy, the reading process, and reading fluency

- Describe the stages of the reading process and consider how you will apply the reading process in your read aloud and shared reading lesson.
- Notice the differences between types of reading instructional practices (Figure 2-2) and consider for what purposes you would use a particular reading format.
- How do students become fluent readers?
- How is reading fluency assessed?

Fluency

Matching Books

- Engle's Enchanted Air
- Planning for reading fluency workstations
- Running Records
- Choral Reading

Vocabulary and word work

Lesson plan from team 1 facilitators

Practice running records

Field experience

Week 4

2/12

Focus on balanced literacy instructional practices

- Preview next week's guiding questions
- Preview next week’s reading and review balanced literacy instructional practices (see Tomkins compendium and index)
- Fluency lesson plan from team 2 due
- Field experience notes 1 due

Week 5

2/19

Parkland

Reading comprehension and using informational texts to teach content

- What comprehension skills do students need to be successful readers?
- In what ways do teachers teach and assess comprehension?
- Describe the genres and types of texts that K-6 teachers need to teach.
- How does the structure of text affect

- Identification of three learners that need additional support and a description of why you chose the students. (At least one student should have an identified learning need (e.g., ELL, student with IEP);
- Identification of a learning objective for your re-engagement lesson;
- A description of a re-engagement lesson (individual, small group, or full class lesson) and formative assessment that will support the three identified students in clarifying, practicing, or developing the learning objective, and
- A description of revisions and edits you made to your reflection based on peer feedback on the last day of class.

Use of evidence to support your interpretations: Draw upon specific evidence to support interpretations of student learning (e.g., student’s performance on rubric).

Effective re-engagement lesson: re-engagement lesson targets the learning skills in which students need additional support

Depth and thoughtfulness of analysis: Each discussion point above is given thoughtful treatment and thorough analysis.

Mechanics: clear & well-organized -3-page paper that analyzes and summarizes student learning in a coherent and logical manner and provides a clear description of how you will re-engage the learners in the identified skills. The paper is free of grammar and spelling errors.

Field-based Experience Notes

Student Name: ________________________________

Name of Cooperating Teacher __________________

Grade-level: ___________ Date of observation: _______________

Instructions:

You are to write a 500-word description of your field experience. There are four components to the essay as outlined below.

1. Your first focus is on the instructional procedures, including what moves the teacher makes, what student interactions these instructions promote and what resources are used (e.g., technology, anchor charts). The following are instructional practices of balanced literacy instruction for which you should look as you will be required to use the practices in your own teaching this semester:

   - Interactive read aloud
   - Shared Reading
   - Choral Reading
   - Shared Writing
   - Turn and Talk (small group or partner discussions)
   - Minilessons
   - Daily 5 activities (read-to-self, work-on-writing, read-to-someone, listen-to-reading, word-work)
   - Teacher guided groups or individual conferences
   - Formative or summative assessments

During your observation, it may be helpful to take notes using a graphic organizer such as the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name of instructional practice:</th>
<th>Lesson TEKS/Objectives:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Contextual information (e.g., student grouping arrangement, lesson unit, what happened right before or after this procedure, student behaviors, other)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Teacher Moves</th>
<th>Student Interactions/Response</th>
<th>What resources are available and how are they used</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Teacher move 1</td>
<td>Student interactions 1</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teacher move 2...</td>
<td>Student interactions 2...</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. Your second focus for the essay is your perspective of the instructional practice/s you observed. Consider the following questions:

- How is the teacher responding to the needs of different learners (e.g., differentiating instruction)?
- How is the instructional practice meeting the goals of the lesson?
- How is the teacher managing student behavior as part of the instructional practice?
- In what ways is the teacher monitoring and adjusting instruction?
- What kinds of thinking is the teacher promoting (e.g., recall vs. critical thinking)?
- What surprised you or what did you learn from closely observing the instructional practice?

3. Your third focus is to make a connection/s to course readings. I encourage you in particular to make connections between your observations and the assigned readings for the upcoming (or past) week and/or make connections between your observations and Gail Tompkins descriptions of balanced literacy practices (see compendium, pages 435-484).

4. Lastly, you should reflect on your own participation in the setting. What kinds of instructional moves are you making and how are students responding to you? How is your participation evolving over time?
