

Individual Instruction - MUSA 1195

(Lower Level Applied Guitar)

Instructor: Shaun Mahoney
Office: Fox Fine Arts 403
Email: stmahoney@utep.edu

- Students meet with instructor once per week for 50 minutes. Students are expected to select a 50-minute time slot via my office door calendar one week prior to the first week of the semester.

Guitar students take four semesters of lower level applied lessons before moving to upper level via the double jury. This syllabus outlines lower level guitar course study by semester. The applicable degrees are: commercial music and theory and composition.

Course Description

This course is designed to instill comprehensive understanding and application of commercial guitar as it pertains to the following categories: Theory, Reading, Technique, Musicality/Performance, Transcription and Analysis, Rhythm Playing, Lead Playing (spontaneous composition of solos based on chord changes), Solo Playing (arrangement and performance), and Playing in Ensembles.

Course Objectives

- To be able to understand music theory and its translation to the guitar. Specifically focusing on jazz theory and applying it to commercial music styles.
- To reach technical mastery on the guitar.
- To be a proficient sight-reader.
- To be proficient playing 'rhythm guitar' in commercial music styles. This means learning the supporting roles of guitar in commercial styles.
- To be proficient playing 'lead guitar' in commercial music styles. This means being able to improvise single lines in many commercial music styles.
- To be proficient playing 'solo guitar' in commercial music styles. This means being able to arrange, compose, and improvise while playing solo.
- To be proficient playing in different settings or different sized ensembles from duo to full big bands and orchestras.
- To perform all of these objectives with sensitivity to style and musicality.

Course Goals

To be able to do the following:

- Complete all Program Objectives.
- Pass a jury each semester.
- Pass the double jury in the 4th semester to be accepted into upper level lessons
- Perform the appropriate recital to complete the degree.
- Upon graduating, be able to successfully audition for a graduate program.

Attendance Policy: Students are allowed 1 unexcused absence. Each additional absence will result in a half letter grade deduction. Make up lessons are not required by the instructor. Weekly lesson times are subject to change.

Area and Departmental Recitals Attendance Policy

1. All students enrolled in Applied Lessons must attend a minimum of twelve (12) Area and Departmental which take place every Friday at 1:30 p.m. in the Department of Music. Failing to attend twelve (12) required recitals will result in lowering Applied Lessons' final grade by one letter.
2. Make up absences are accomplished by attending UTEP Music Department concerts and recitals. Non-University recitals such as El Paso Music Forum, El Paso Symphony, El Paso Wind Symphony, and Pro-Musica as well as any other performances given by our faculty and guests will be accepted.
3. To receive credit for the make-up, a student must attend a music event. The program must be signed by a music faculty member who attended the same event. The program must be brought to the Music Office to record the attendance. Student name and ID# must be on the program. Without this information students will not receive credit.
4. It is the student's responsibility to turn in the signed programs to the main office by 5 p.m. on Friday's Finals week . There will be no exceptions.
5. Students must sign the makeup sheet every time they turn in a program. At the end, the office must have both, the program with the student's information and their signature matching the date. There will be no exceptions.
6. Please notice: When a single area recital is cancelled, students will need to replace the cancelled recital by either going to a different area recital held at the same time or turning in a makeup recital.
7. At the end of the semester, all students will have the same number of expected recitals.

Juries: The juries at the end of each semester will act as a final exam. Jury sheets are available to students after the jury.

Studio Class: Students are required to attend and perform at monthly studio classes where they will be critiqued in front of their peers in a master-class setting.

Grading: Students final grade will be based on progress made during the semester, comprehension of materials, completion of week-to-week assignments, and juries.

Overall Semester Grade Percentage Spread :

Completion of weekly assignments: 25%

Comprehension and application of materials: 25%

Overall progress during semester: 25%

Jury: 15%

Studio Class: 10%
