ONLINE COURSE

3 Graduate Credits

Faculty: Dr. Vanessa Espitia * vespiti@mendoza.utep.edu

Online Hrs: Thursday 5- 6:30 p.m. or by appointment

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Identification of principal problems and issues of primary and second language acquisition, specifically the relationship between the development of these languages to facilitate and promote biliteracy. Emphasis will be given to critical perspectives and social cultural, cognitive, and linguistic factors that influence in the biliteracy process. In addition, traditional assumptions about bilingual students and biliteracy education will be challenged. Biliteracy instruction, matters of transfer, and holistic biliteracy assessment will also, be explored.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: Research, reflections, documentation and learning shape our pedagogy. This course challenges traditional perspectives in literacy education of emergent bilinguals. The focus is on biliteracy, including but not limited to, reading and writing in two languages. It emphasizes translanguaging as a pedagogical practice that utilizes bilingualism as a resource. Biliteracy is viewed as interdependent processes across both languages; consequently, knowledge and skills acquired in one language are accessible in the other language. Emphasis is on intentionally and purposefully, connecting Spanish and English literacy environments through holistic pedagogical practices: Side by Side Spanish Language Arts/English Language Arts and Reading Standards; Holistic Assessments; Bidirectional Transfer and Metalinguistic/Cross Language Practices. It is grounded in the understanding that the teaching and learning contexts influence the opportunities and developments of biliteracy.

- Research and examine critical perspectives of biliteracy;
- Research and analyze the concepts of simultaneous and successive biliteracy development;
- Examine cultural, social, political, and linguistic issues that impact biliteracy education;
- Research, examine and define translanguaging as a pedagogical practice in its role in biliteracy education;
- Research and analyze the implications for policy and practice in biliteracy education;
- Research and examine biliteracy education in practice.

A monolingual perspective of language and literacy development is not enough for understanding, developing and assessing biliteracy.

Participation: All students are expected to be prepared and to be active participants and check their emails, assignments, discussions and blogs on a regular basis. Reading the assignments is essential for meaningful participation. Students are responsible for working with their team. Team work is mandatory, and provides a forum for discussion that cannot be duplicated. No excuses for incomplete or late assignments will be accepted. All students are required to be prepared for each course session and maintain a high level of professionalism and respect for one another as we engage in discussions and group work.

Academic Dishonesty: The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve based on the quality of work produced by their individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of scholastic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that all faculty insist on adherence to these standards. Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and submission for credit of any work or materials that are not attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP) and available in the Office of the Dean of Students, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to failing grades on the work in question, to failing grades in the course, to suspension or dismissal among others. For further information, please refer to <http://sa.utep.edu/osccr/academic-integrity/>

You can do so by providing documentation to The Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). Students who have been designated as needing this service must reactivate their standing with CASS on a yearly basis. Failure to report to this office will place a student on the inactive list and nullify benefits received. If you have a problem with testing, studying or learning, including a handicapping condition, such as a learning disability, vision or hearing impairment, or physical disability, you must notify the instructor by the end of the third week of class if you wish to request accommodation. You are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the director. The Center for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that people in areas of substantial or high COVID-19 transmission wear face masks when indoors in groups of people. The best way that Miners can take care of Miners is to get the vaccine. If you still need the vaccine, it is widely available in the El Paso area, and will be available at no charge on campus during the first week of classes. For more information about the current rates, testing, and vaccinations, please visit www.epstrong.org

August 27 MODULE 1 Ideologies and Foundations of Biliteracy in School

Ideology: An ideology is a set of normative beliefs and values that a person or other entity has for non-epistemic reasons. These rely on basic assumptions about reality that may or may not have any factual basis.

Learning to read and write in two languages differs from learning to read and write in one language. Development or progress should never be understood/explained as independent systems of Spanish and English.

When writing a reaction response, you are expected to demonstrate a grasp of the topic, analytical skills, and the ability to communicate reactions to the reader. Understand the purpose of the reaction. Reaction responses require that you think carefully about what you feel or think about the text/video. Start your reaction response with your introduction that includes the topic you are reacting to, and write it concisely, preferably in one sentence. End with your conclusion. Conclude with a restatement of your reactions.

Self-Narrated Video: Creating a Community of Learners

Introductions are an effective way to meet your classmates and professor - a first impression! However, if the introduction is not created with care and some planning, it can easily turn into a first impression you want to take back. In 1-3 PowerPoint presentation slides that must include one picture of yourself and a voice recording of 2-3 minutes in Flipgrid, introduce yourself to the class.

In your presentation, talk about yourself, what biliteracy is to you, and include what you learned from the two videos. You will be graded according to the rubric found below. Create your assignment on Flipgrid and respond to 2 classmates as part of creating a community of learners.

Interpretation	Presentation reflects understanding, insight, and reflection about the topic and the assigned perspective . The message uses sources, required reading sources. In addition, it demonstrates that the group has gained new understanding of the topic and the assigned perspective .	Postings provide some insight, understanding, insight, and reflective thought about the topic and the assigned perspective . Some messages do analysis or interpretation well, but a significant number do not. This might be because the analysis was not done well or because it was not attempted (that is, was simply opinion).	Postings show no evidence of insight, understanding, insight, and reflective thought about the topic and the assigned perspective . Message generally shows little evidence of analysis, consisting instead of opinion and feelings and impressions.
Presentation	Creative. Sentences are clear and wording is unambiguous. Correct word choice, correct spelling, correct grammar.	Ordinary. Has good writing. Presentation has gaps or does not connect all of the time, however, this does not undermine communication or the persuasiveness of the argument.	Presentation is not fluid or connected. Terms are not clearly defined or explained. Grammar, spelling, and/or word choice errors are frequent enough that the sense of the messages is lost or muddled.
Group Participation	Evident that all members participated and contributed.	Evident that some members participated and contributed.	Evident that no group work was done.
Time	Kept to the required time.	Went over the required time.	Did not adhere to the time.
Participation	Responds to all projects with significant, meaningful feedback.	Responds to some projects; and/or not relating to what was presented.	Does not post responses to any projects.
