Course Description

Spanish One (3-0) An introductory course for non-native speakers with emphasis on pronunciation and the basic elements of grammar; practice in understanding, speaking, reading, and writing. Elementary Spanish One is a beginning Spanish course designed for students who have not previously studied Spanish or have no practical command of the language. Spanish One is a beginning Spanish course designed for students who have very little or no knowledge of the language.

Course Overview

You may be admitted to Spanish 1301 only if you have taken the Spanish Placement Test and have placed directly into SPAN 1301, or if you have contacted the Undergraduate Spanish Advisor to remove the departmental approval requirement. The Department of Languages and Linguistics reserves the right to rectify errors in placement caused by a student's failure to observe these guidelines, including the option to drop a student enrolled in an inappropriate course.

Credit Hours: 3 Credit Hours

Prerequisite Courses: None

Prerequisite Skills and Knowledge:

- Completion of the Spanish Placement Test with direct placement into SPAN 1301
- Documented removal of the departmental approval requirement

Required Materials

Course Program

-  Contraseña: Your password to Foundational Spanish by Amy Rossomondo and Gillian Lord. Contraseña is a completely mobile and digital immersive experience. There is no required printed textbook.
- A good Spanish-English dictionary (recommended)
- You must have a computer headset (microphone and earphone set).

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, you should be able to:

Course objectives according to ACTFL:

A. Listening: At the end of Spanish 1301, the student will be able to understand sentence-length utterances consisting of re-combinations of learned elements in a limited number of content areas, particularly if strongly supported by the situational context. Content refers to basic personal background and needs, social conventions, and routine tasks, such as getting meals and receiving simple instructions and directions. Listening tasks pertain primarily to spontaneous face-to-face conversations.

B. Writing: Student will be characterized by the speaker's ability to create with the language by combining and recombining learned elements, though primarily in a reactive mode; initiate, minimally sustain, and close in a simple way basic communicative tasks; and ask and answer questions.

C. Reading: Able to understand main ideas and/or some facts from the simplest connected texts dealing with basic personal and social needs. Such texts are linguistically non complex and have a clear underlying internal structure—for example, chronological sequencing. They impart basic information about which the reader has to make only minimal suppositions or to which the reader brings personal interest and/or knowledge. Examples include messages with social purposes and information for the widest possible audience, such as public announcements and short, straightforward instructions dealing with public life. Some misunderstandings will occur.

D. Speaking: Able to partially satisfy the requirements of basic communicative exchanges by relying heavily on learned utterances but occasionally expanding these through simple re-combinations of their elements. Can ask questions or make statements involving learned material. Shows signs of spontaneity, although this falls short of real autonomy of expression. Speech continues to consist of learned utterances rather than of personalized, situational adapted ones. Vocabulary centers on areas such as basic objects, places, and most common kinship terms. Pronunciation may still be strongly influenced by first language. Errors are frequent and, in spite of repetition, some Novice-High speakers will have difficulty being understood even by sympathetic interlocutors.

Methodology

This course is taught in Spanish. If you don't hear Spanish, you won't learn it. Please try to use only Spanish when speaking in this course. The following three expressions will initially help you survive:

“No entiendo”..... (‘I don't understand’)

“¿Cómo se dice _____ en español?”..... (‘How do you say _____ in Spanish?’)

“¿Qué quiere decir _____?”(‘What does _____ mean?’).

The role of grammar

Grammar is indeed important, but if all you do is grammar, drills you will never learn to speak the language. Instead, the student will be able to put the grammar to use in contextualized, communicative situations of the sort you will encounter in the class. Although mechanical practice is necessary, it should not dominate class time, which must be spent communicating in Spanish. To practice the grammar in class, please study the assigned material in Contraseña. If you are prepared, you will find it easier to communicate in the target language. If you do not understand a particular grammar point, ask your instructor.

Speech errors

Sometimes students are reluctant to speak for fear of making mistakes. It's a natural part of the language-learning process to make mistakes. Your instructor will not correct every error you make, for if he/she did so, it would take you forever to communicate anything. In class, your speech errors will be corrected when they interfere dramatically with your attempt to communicate, when they pertain to the grammar structures that are being studied that day, or when they are of a sort that could embarrass you socially.

Course Technology

- SPAN 1301 requires the use of Contraseña. Links to course materials and electronic resources for each week of class are located on the Contraseña website (LingroHub)
- Also student needs UTEP Blackboard access

Technology Requirements/ Knowledge

Information for this course will be presented in the Blackboard learning management system. The Contraseña website will be used to access the course material and course work.

It is expected that you have basic Internet skills if you are in this course. Those skills include the ability to login to the course web site and send and receive email with attachments. Also, you must be familiar with Microsoft Office Word to complete the course and know how to save all assignments in RTF (rich text format). If you need to review any of the Internet basics, please go to the Microsoft site and brush up.

To ensure your success in accessing your course materials and completing your assignments, it is recommended that you ensure your computer setup for this class meets the following minimum requirements:

- Broadband Internet connection, such as cable or DSL
- A modern computer (PC or Mac), no more than four years old, with the following minimum configuration:

- Processor: Dual-core or better, at least 2 GHZ
- RAM: 2 GB or better
- Operating System: Windows 7 or 8, or Mac OS X 10.3.9 or better
- Computer headset (microphone and earphone set).
- The hands-free option for your telephone will work in most cases.

Tech Support

The University of Texas at El Paso offers complete technical information and online help desk support at <http://at.utep.edu/techsupport/>.

Preparation for Computer Emergencies

Computer Crash: Not having a working computer or a crashed computer during the semester will NOT be considered as an acceptable reason for not completing course activities at a scheduled time. NOTE: Identify a second computer that you can use when/if your personal computer crashes.

Complete Loss of Contact: If you lose contact with me completely (i.e. you cannot contact me via Blackboard or email), please contact me at (915) 790-7049 (cellphone) and explain the reason you cannot contact me and leave me a way to contact you.

Lost/Corrupt/Disappeared files: You must keep/save a copy of every project/assignment on an external disk or personal computer. In the event of any kind of failure (e.g., Blackboard server crash or virus infection, students own computer crashes, loss of files in cyberspace, etc.) or any contradictions/problems, I may/will request you to resubmit the files. In other words, if you submit a document to me, and I either do not receive it (lost in cyberspace) or it is corrupted when I open it, it is incumbent upon you to resend it to me, corrected, with little or no “downtime” in regard to the timeline for submission.

Structure and sequence of Assessment and Learning activities

- You will be assigned a variety of activities from the Contraseña site, consisting of videos, grammar exercises, listening and writing practice, etc. You are responsible for completing all the assigned activities computer graded (3 attempts). The resulting grades of all activities assigned for each unit, and the grade for each unit project will be posted every two weeks in Blackboard (to help you know your current grade in the course).

To learn how each Contraseña unit is organized, and the type of activities you will be completing in each unit, review the table with the descriptions below.

Each unit in Contraseña is organized the same way!

On your own, you complete independent preparation for each section of a unit.

- In Preparar: you watch animated videos that explain concepts, read brief texts, and complete activities to check your comprehension.
- In Aplicar, you practice what you learned and complete self-checks.
- In Comprobar, you evaluate your learning.

The independent work prepares you for Conversar (LinguaMeeting sessions), the engaging pair and group activities (communicative practice) where you put the language you learned to use with your classmates.

Each unit begins with the Unit Goal: what you will accomplish by the end of the unit.

At the end of each unit, you create a Proyecto, a written or oral project. All projects are posted in an ePortfolio called LingroFolio, so your instructor and classmates can see and comment on your work. The activities throughout the unit prepare you to be able to complete the Proyecto successfully.

Learning Objectives appear at the top of each section to remind you what you will learn in that section and represent one of the pieces needed to complete the Proyecto.

Contraseña: Proyecto

Preparar: Guided preparation for planning and organizing your proyecto.

Publicar: Instructions and tools to create your proyecto.

Comentar: Guidance on how to comment on your classmates' proyectos.

- Because effective oral communication is one of the primary goals of the beginning Spanish sequence, and is often the primary goal of most beginning language students, there will be several speaking tasks ¡A conversar! during class time in order to develop and increase your proficiency.

Social learning

In this course, all activities are designed to engage you with your classmates and your instructor in authentic-purposeful social interaction in which culture will be key. In all sections of Contraseña, you will be able to engage by creating projects to an e-portfolio site in which the whole class can participate all while experiencing, reflecting, analyzing and applying corresponding unit themes/activities in different contexts.

Module components

Each module contains:

1. Learning Goals for the Unit.
2. An Activity Plan that lists the assignments you need to complete to master that Unit's goal and complete the project. The Activity Plan will assign exercises in Contraseña. Each assigned exercise is given points. The final grade for these exercises will be determined by adding all points received for each activity completed. Not all unit activities will be assigned—only those listed in Activity Plan will be included in the gradebook. You are encouraged to complete additional exercises for further practice and review, but they will not be counted toward this portion of the grade. Contraseña is designed to provide immediate feedback and exercises can be completed three times. Therefore, you can (and should) practice an activity before submitting it for credit. The due dates are set on the calendar and syllabus. The due time is at 11:59 pm MST, unless otherwise indicated. For submission of exercises, 11:59 pm MST reflects the latest possible time the assigned work will be accepted for credit. I suggest that you begin the assignments well before the due date.

Time management

The tentative schedule contains all assignments and deadlines in detail so you can plan. Expect to spend three hours on preparation and learning assignments for every semester credit hour. Since this class is a 3 credit hour class, expect to spend about 9 hours out of class on assignments for a total of about 12 hours per week to obtain a good grade in class. Please, combine the course schedules of all your classes, create your own study schedule and stick to it.

Expectations and Policies

What to Expect from the Instructor

The instructor will answer all email correspondence within 48 hours and will post graded assignments by Tuesday of the following week.

The instructor will monitor the Course Messages to answer questions about the course. As well, the instructor has provided you with her personal cell phone number. You may text her, and she will respond to you (or call you back if requested) as soon as possible. Be sure to include your name and the course to which you belong when sending an email or text.

Participation

Announcements: Students are responsible for reading any announcements posted to Course Announcements in the Communication Forum of the course (in Blackboard). These may include changes in policy, due dates, assignment requirements, etc.

Assignment Due Dates and Grading: A week in this class is from Monday at 12:00 a.m. Mountain Time to Sunday at 11:00 p.m. Mountain Time. Check the syllabus and the calendar in Contraseña for the weekly assignments and due dates. Please be sure to start your assignments early enough to complete them by the posted due dates. Schedule permitting, I will post grades by Tuesday morning of the following week.

Emails: You must use your University email for everything in this class. When sending me an email, please use this format in the subject: SPAN 1301online-Your Name. All students are responsible for checking the course Blackboard mail daily.

My policy is to respond to emails within 48 hours. However, I try to respond to emails as soon as I get them, so you probably will have a response sooner than the 48-hour response time. One exception is Sundays. If you email me on Sunday (or very late Saturday night), I probably will not respond until sometime on Monday. If you have questions on the material in Contraseña or about the class in general, please reach out to me- I will be more than happy to assist you.

Online Courtesy: Students must engage in proper online courtesy. Please respect your fellow classmates and instructor. Even though we do not physically meet face-to-face (but virtually), the same courtesies that are extended in a face-to-face learning environment are in place. Failure to engage in proper online courtesy will result in earning a zero for each assignment where the incident has occurred. Be sure to read the Acceptable Content Guidelines located in Blackboard before posting in the course.

Effective Electronic Communication

It is important to share a word of caution, so we can become wiser about interpersonal distance learning communications. In an online environment, many of the feelings or impressions that are transmitted via body language in face-to-face communications are lost. Consequently, interpreting emotions and innuendos can be difficult. Only what is written, or drawn, carries the message. Often, excitement can be misinterpreted as anger or insult. We all need to keep this in mind as we communicate.

Words in print may seem harmless, but they can emotionally injure us when working at a distance. Hence, we must be conscious of how we communicate while working at a distance and use good netiquette, that is, online communication etiquette. For example, your classmates may not know who is posting a comment, so clearly identify yourself when posting to a discussion board. Furthermore, avoid using all capital letters in electronic communication as all caps come across as shouting.

The standard netiquette for participation in networked discussion requires that all comments focus on the topic at hand, without becoming personalized, and be substantive in nature. In other words, you certainly may disagree with others, but you must do so respectfully. You may express strong beliefs or emotions, but you may not get so carried away that you lose all perspective on the course itself.

You can find more information on netiquette, the etiquette of Internet communication, at www.albion.com/netiquette.

Academic Dishonesty Statement

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion.

- Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports.
- Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents another person's words or ideas as his or her own.
- Collusion involves unauthorized collaboration with another person or group to commit any academically dishonest act.

Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution for possible disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from UTEP for such actions. You can find more information in the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures, under the heading "Alleged Student Scholastic Dishonesty," and in the Regents' Rules and Regulations.

Attendance Policy: policy on Tardiness and Missing Class Sessions

To expand your proficiency in a language, you must be consistent in the course to engage in active practice. Good consistency is a course requirement. Therefore, if you are absent an excessive number of times during the drop period— from the first day after the end of late registration through the last day for faculty to drop students—your instructor will drop you from the course. Here are the rules:

1. For classes that meet twice a week (MW or TR) you will be immediately dropped from a class after you've been absent two classes in a row or you will be immediately dropped after you've been accumulated a total of six hours of sporadic absences during the semester (equivalent to four absences).

Late arrivals and early departures also carry penalties for purposes of dropping the course: two late arrivals equal one absence, two early departures equal one absence, and one late arrival plus one early departure equal one absence. If you arrive late to class it is your responsibility to tell your instructor at the end of the class period that you arrived late but that you were indeed present, for if you don't, it's possible he or she will mark you absent.

Exceptions to the above-stated policies are only made under these circumstances: (1) a medical emergency requiring hospitalization, (2) jury duty or (3) official UTEP business such as athletics, debating team, or band. Documentary proof of official UTEP business or jury duty must be provided ten calendar days before the fact; documentary proof of hospitalization must be provided on the day you return to class. Babysitting, work schedule changes, personal problems, unexpected events, work load are not exceptions for this attendance policy. Your instructor can also drop you for lack of effort: falling extremely behind on homework (talk to your instructor about exceptions), not submitting homework at all, repeatedly submitting incomplete projects, etc.

Late Policy

The best way to prepare yourself for the next level of Spanish study is to complete all assignments in a timely manner. Only work submitted by the deadlines will receive credit. If you have special circumstances, bring them to the attention of your instructor immediately. Only in such special cases (such as a medical emergency or official university business) will exceptions be made. Points will be deducted for late submissions at the instructor's discretion.

Library Information

Access the UTEP Library by visiting <http://libraryweb.utep.edu/>

Disability Statement

The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) is committed to providing for the needs of enrolled or admitted students who have disabilities under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA). Therefore, it is the policy of UTEP that the campus makes services available for any student who, through a recent assessment, can document a disability. If you have a disability and need classroom accommodations, please contact The Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu, or visit the office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106.

For additional information, please visit the CASS website at www.sa.utep.edu/cass.

COVID-19 Precautions

You must STAY AT HOME and REPORT if you (1) have been diagnosed with COVID-19, (2) are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, or (3) have had recent contact with a person who has received a positive coronavirus test. Reports should be made at screening.utep.edu. If you know of anyone who should report any of these three criteria, you should encourage them to report. If the individual cannot report, you can report on their behalf by sending an email to COVIDaction@utep.edu.

For each day that you attend campus—for any reason—you must complete the questions on the UTEP screening website (screening.utep.edu) prior to arriving on campus. The website will verify if you are permitted to come to campus. Under no circumstances should anyone come to class when feeling ill or exhibiting any of the known COVID-19 symptoms. If you are feeling unwell, please let me know as soon as possible, and alternative instruction will be provided. Students are advised to minimize the number of encounters with others to avoid infection.

Wear face coverings when in common areas of campus or when others are present. You must wear a face covering over your nose and mouth at all times in this class. If you choose not to wear a face covering, you may not enter the classroom. If you remove your face covering, you will be asked to put it on or leave the classroom. Students who refuse to wear a face covering and follow preventive COVID-19 guidelines will be dismissed from the class and will be subject to disciplinary action according to Section 1.2.3 Health and Safety and Section 1.2.2.5 Disruptions in the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures.

(classes with on-campus meetings) Please note that if COVID-19 conditions deteriorate in the City of El Paso, all course and lab activities may be transitioned to remote delivery.

COVID-19 Accommodations

Students are not permitted on campus when they have a positive COVID-19 test, exposure or symptoms. If you are not permitted on campus (even if this course is online), you should contact me as soon as possible so we can arrange necessary and appropriate accommodations.
