Filme:

¿Quién es Dayani Cristal? de Marc Silver

Tema del curso:

El viaje ha sido siempre un tema literario importante, desde La Odisea de Homero hasta El Quijote de Miguel de Cervantes. En América Latina, el viaje ha influido en la literatura y la cultura desde los Diarios de Cristóbal Colón y las llamadas crónicas de Indias, escritas por los misioneros españoles. Esta clase es una exploración de algunas modalidades del viaje y la relevancia que han tenido en la construcción de las entidades políticas y sociales de nuestro continente.

Estudiaremos diarios, textos de ficción, filmes, historietas, novelas gráficas de autoras y autores latinoamericanos contemporáneos.

Objetivos del curso: El objetivo principal del curso es conocer los aspectos generales de la literatura de viaje en América Latina y de esa manera adentrarnos en temas como identidades políticas, dictadura, exilio y migración.

ACADEMIC Integrity: The University Catalog describes scholastic integrity in this way: "The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve excellence based on the quality of work produced by the individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of academic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that the members of this academic community understand the regulations pertaining to academic integrity and that all faculty insist on adherence to these standards. Any student who commits an act of academic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, and any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP), and available in the Office of the Dean of Students and on the homepage of the Dean of Students at: http://www.utep.edu/dos may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to a failing grade on the work in question, to a failing grade in the course, to suspension or dismissal, among others." UTEP's library offers additional information and resources regarding academic integrity and how to avoid infractions at the following website: http://libraryweb.utep.edu/research/plagiarism.php

"The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of University programs, services and activities with documented disabilities in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Students who become pregnant or have parenting responsibilities may also request reasonable accommodations. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. The UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) will process requests for accommodations based on a disability, pregnancy, or parenting. Contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services at 915-747-5148, email them at cass@utep.edu, or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal."
